Most Reverend Edward Francis Hoban, S.T.D.
Bishop of Cleveland

Dedication

Four years ago the Most Reverend Edward F. Hoban, then coadjutor bishop of Cleveland, signally honored the freshmen candidates for the Sodality by accepting their pledge of allegiance to Our Blessed Mother.

Now, as seniors, we look back upon that inspiring occasion and realize that personal interest has been the keynote of Bishop Hoban's episcopacy — a personal interest that has been responsible for the many new parishes and other good works in the Cleveland diocese. Truly has our tireless bishop expended himself so that Our Lord may be more accessible to His multitudes.

With a deep appreciation for our bishop's devotion to his diocese, with gratitude for the spiritual fruits he has brought us, we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1947 IGNATIAN to Bishop Edward F. Hoban.

SENIORS

Another year—and another class adds its message of farewell.

As we depart, a touch of sadness and deep regret lingers as we dwell upon the past years, years which fulfilled our fondest dreams of a happy, profitable life as Ignatians.

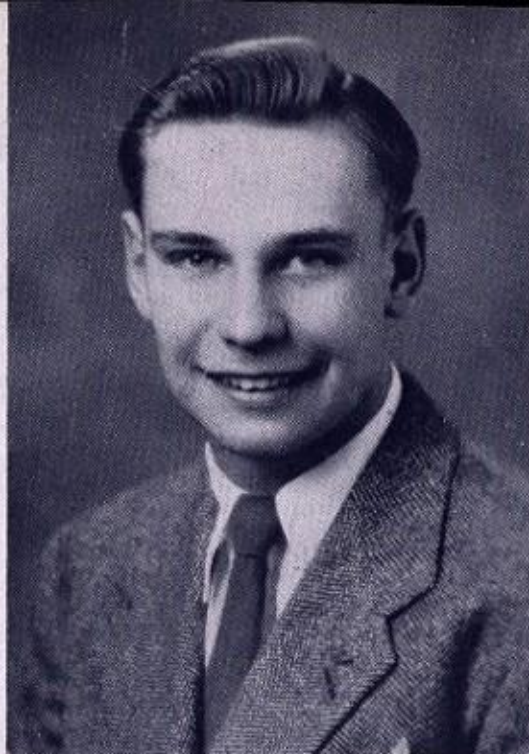

Yet what would we have achieved, much less attained, without the spiritual guidance predominating our every effort at St. Ignatius? It seemed that no matter what we did, or attempted to do, whether in the classroom, in sports, or in the other activities, we accomplished it only with the aid of prayer.

It is, therefore, only fitting that we leave behind us some small record of our days at Ignatius. With this in mind and remembering our days so sanctified by prayer,—the Fathers offering their Masses for us, the days spent in retreat here and at St. Stanislaus, the prayers before class, and the traditional Hail Mary before our games,—we, the Class of 1947, submit our yearbook, with a deep feeling of gratitude, to our fellow Ignatians and all who helped us to salute the future with such strength and courage.

The Senior Class

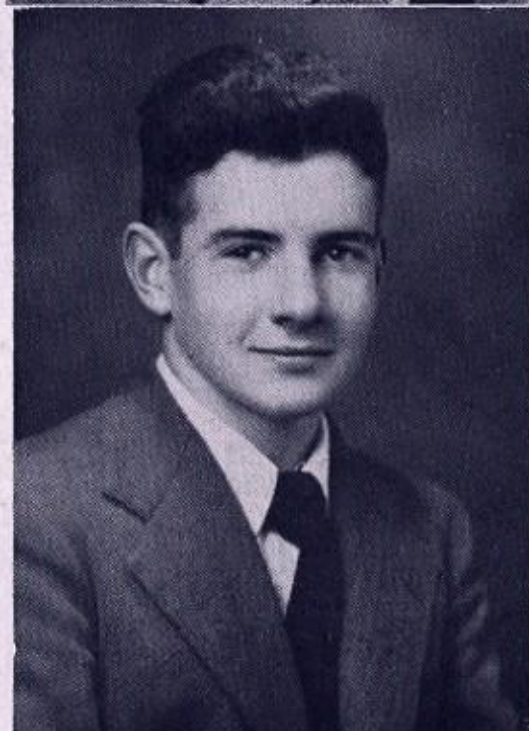

'47

Senior Officers

RONALD J. SCHOECK

Ronnie was elected to lead the class of '47. We couldn't have made a better choice. A top-flight athlete in three major sports, he was stalwart center on the varsity football squad, a hard fighting guard on the basketball team, and an ace pitcher with the Wildcat nine. Loyal to the Blessed Virgin, he was a four-year Sodalist, holding down the office of vice-president in second year, prefect this year. A real gentleman and all-around athlete, Ronnie has merited first honors each year. He ambitions a big league baseball career.

ROBERT P. RILEY

Vice-President of the Senior Class, Bob was a spark plug in everything that had to do with Ignatius. Gifted with a keen sense of humor, he wrote the Black Eye, and was a member of the Harlequins, as well as the Schmarlequins. A confident elocutionist and a persuasive speaker, he was a member of the Senior Debaters.

Though diminutive in stature, Bob played Jay Vee football and proved to be a stellar backfield man. In freshman year he displayed his pugilistic abilities, winning a championship in the Blue and Gold Boxing Tourney. A loyal Ignatian in the true sense of the term, he was also a four-year Sodalist.

THOMAS S. ACKER

Tom had an active interest in everything that went on around Ignatius. An ardent worker in all his undertakings and a stickler for details, he was elected secretary of the Senior Class. In football he merited monograms for his rugged line play at end for the Wildcats. Definitely endowed with the qualities of a leader, T. S. was chosen secretary of the Sodality as well as of the Debaters Club, climaxing four years in each organization. Besides being a Harlequin for three seasons, editorial writer for The Eye, and editor of the Ignatian, Tom tops it all off with first honors for all four years.

BERNARD M. McLAUGHLIN

One of the best-liked fellows in the school, genial Bernie always had a smile and a good word for everyone. Possessor of personality-plus, combined with selling prowess, Mac won second prize in obtaining ads for the '47 Ignatian, for which he was business manager. His popularity and qualities of leadership were proved by his election to the office of senior class treasurer. A speedy halfback and a nifty first baseman, he earned varsity monograms in both football and baseball.

THOMAS F. ANKENBRANDT

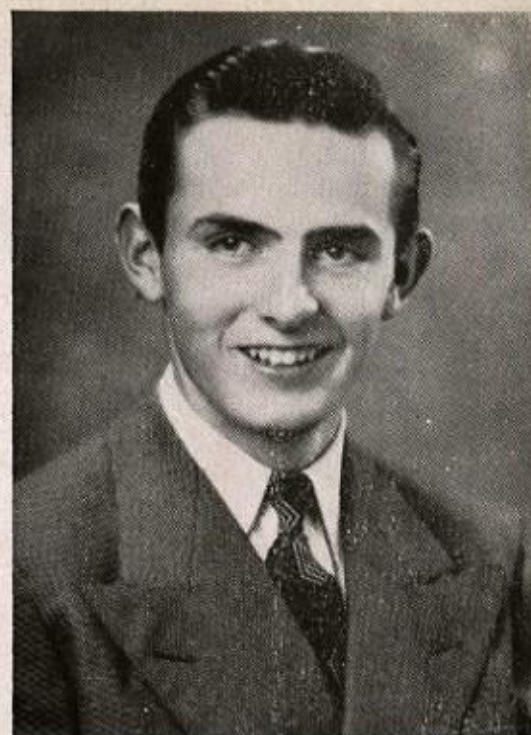

Tom, a four-year honor man, was well known in the dust bowl. He played on intramural basketball, baseball, and football teams. The Classics Club, Harlequins and Sodality were also on his activity list. A deep bass voice combined with long lanky legs identify him easily.

LELAND F. ARUNDEL

Lee, as he is known to many, was very faithful in his duties as mission collector throughout his years at Ignatius. Life ambition? To travel. Perhaps some day he will see the results of the mission collecting he did so well.

'47

JAMES H. ANSBERRY

Jimmy came to Ignatius in his senior year. Migrating from California, he brought along a touch of that western sunshine in his good natured grin. Quick to make friends, he lost no time in getting into activities. A Sodalist and intramural basketball player, he was also a member of the Ignatian staff.

EDMUND G. BANGERT

A real Ignatian with intelligence and personality is synonymous with Ed Bangert. He spent two years in the Sodality, and a year in the Camera Club. One of the many fellows who work after school, Ed carries the Ignatius spirit down to the Cleveland Press, where he is employed.

JAMES J. BADER

Matey, the happy third baseman, wielded a wicked pen and a list of activities longer than his bat. Samples: Harlequin's student director, Eye and Ignatian Sports Editor, 4-B class officer, Dance Committee member, three years at the "hot corner," varsity football (he still has the scars), three years in the Monogram Club, two of Sodality, intramurals. Best of all, he was a "Schmarlequin"—he still has the scars.

EDWARD F. BARRETT

Ed, by painstaking study, gained first honors as a freshman, second honors in his second and third years. A freshman Sodalist, and all-round intramuralist, Ed endeared himself to his math teacher by his consistently good grades.

JAMES P. BARRETT

Jim was "one of the boys". Always on hand with the latest corn and witty remarks, "Honest" Jim kept the class rolling. On the serious side Jim worked on the Eye staff as associate feature editor. A member of the Classics Club, champion boxer and poet, Jim was an all around Ignatian.

'47

DAVID G. BAUGH

Always in on the best things at Ignatius, Dave was a loyal member of both the Sodality and the Magic Club. A four-year honor man, he topped off all his activities with some mighty fine acting in one of the lead roles in the '47 Harlequin production.

THOMAS F. BARRETT

A Sodalist in fourth year and an enthusiast for intramurals, Tom helped convert the hair on the craniums of many a professor to a snowy white. St. Ann's gift to Ignatius, Tommy was a loyal Ignatian who could be relied upon to support all activities.

FRANK L. BITZAN

Teamed with J. P. Barrett, "Bitz" kept 4-A in an uproar (well some of the time). An honor man, Sodalist, two-year debater and vice-president of 4-A, Frank also distinguished himself in sports. Starting with intramurals he worked his way via the jay vee football route to a berth on the Wildcats in his junior and senior years.

LAWRENCE F. BENNINGER

One of our suburban students, Larry commutes daily from outlying Parma to the school on West 30th Street. In second year he entered the squared circle to display his pugilistic talent. Chemistry is Larry's big love; he performs experiments in his own lab.

RICHARD J. BLACKWELL

Dick, a second-place winner in the Interscholastic Latin Contest and winner of the K. of C. Essay contest, was a four-year highest honor man. He was elected class officer in junior and senior years, labored in the cafeteria and chemistry lab, held membership in the Radio and Classics Clubs, Senior Debating Society, and played great intramural baseball. Dick was a sincere friend of all who knew him.

GRADS

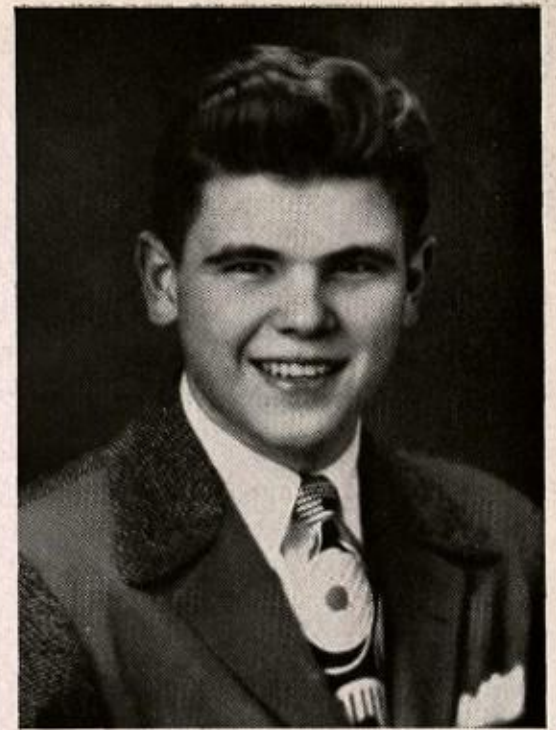

WILLIAM M. BLAIR

A camera enthusiast, Bill had no trouble occupying himself at school or in his darkroom at home. He has been active in the Radio Club, Camera Club and played frosh football. But most important of all, Bill was a four-year honor man.

'4

JOHN A. BOUHALL

An image of quiet good humor, Jack made many friends throughout his four years at Ignatius. He was a magician extraordinary and Radio Club stalwart. Someday Jack hopes to beat Ed Schnell at pool.

ROBERT J. BOGUS

A real promoter and booster of all Ignatian activities, Bob's loyalty to Ignatius was outstanding. A full-fledged magician and faithful Sodalist, he also won honors and devoted himself to the Harlequins. Bob really came into his own, though, as the mainstay of the Christmas dance committee.

RALPH A. BRENNAN

"Arby," the quiet scholar of 4-D, was always seen leaving the campus with an armful of books, but the books never kept him from being a permanent figure in the social life of Lakewood. He also kept close to the Blessed Virgin as a member of the Sodality throughout his years at Ignatius.

THOMAS E. BOURNE

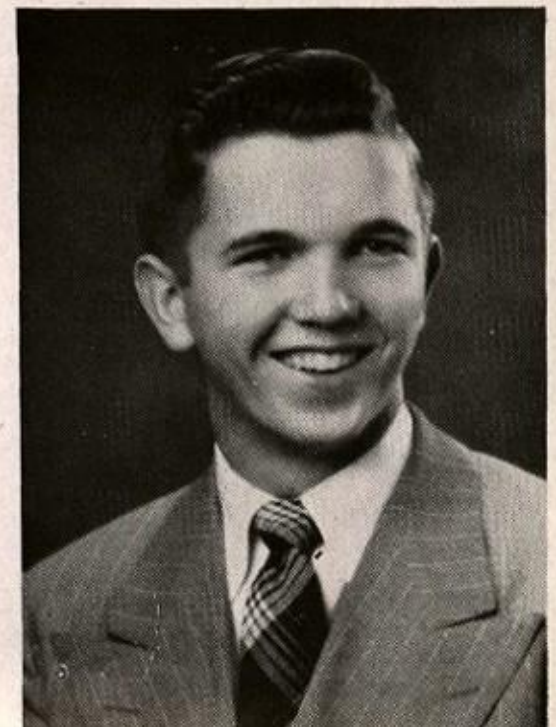

A two-year honor man, Magician and four-year Sodalist, Tom was an asset to the Harlequins and I.A.A. for three years. With all this behind him, he didn't pass up intramurals or the Radio Club in his fourth year. Quite a record!

DONALD L. BRESNAHAN

Don, an honorman in his junior and senior years, was a loyal Sodalist. A great sportsman, Don boxed and played intramural basketball and baseball. He also played a mean trumpet in the band. With his quiet manner and pleasing personality, Don had a large following at Ignatius.

G
D
S

DONALD J. BRUENING

May he preserve his ability to make good friends and his faithfulness to such activities as the Sodality, intramural baseball, basketball and the Classics Club. Able as a student, Don came through in his studies by meriting second honors for two years.

THOMAS J. BUTLER

A class officer in his first, third and fourth years, "Buts" entered the boxing tournament twice, played frosh and jay vee football. Tom worked on the '47 Ignatian, was a member of the Sodality and Senior Prom committee. He also was a fervid intramuralist.

'47

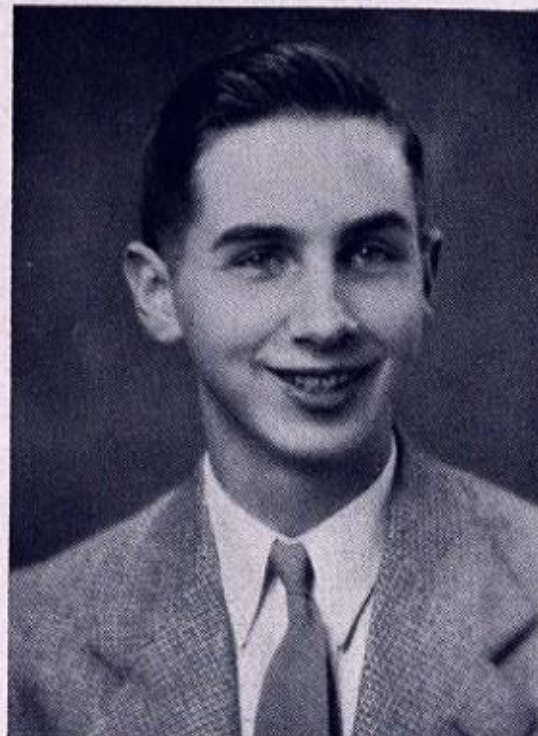

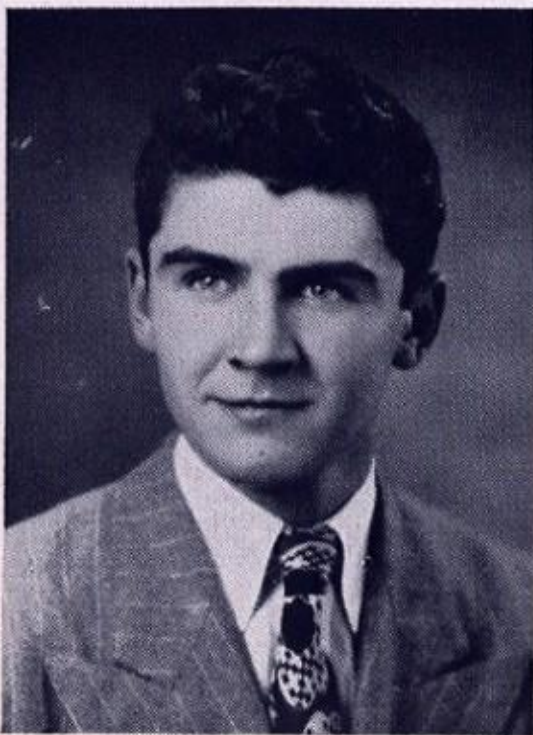

ROBERT J. BUCK

Bob has a reputation for having the fastest growing, thickest beard at Ignatius. A good man with the racket, tennis is Bob's favorite sport. He's on the varsity team. Always a ready student, a regular fellow, and a Sodalist, he looks forward to the day when he can make dentistry his profession.

JOHN A. CARRABINE

Good natured John's most prominent feature is his willingness to cooperate on anything he's asked to do. John, who was always a threat in the boxing ring, hit the books hard enough to gain second honors in his first three years. He was also an intramuralist.

VICTOR H. CACHAT

Vic is one of those fellows who keeps talking in French. He has been a loyal Sodalist for four years and has a most worthy life ambition: to be a good Catholic. Vic also played intramural baseball.

S

MICHAEL W. CERVENAK

Unassuming yet not exactly quiet, Mike always had a shy smile for the teachers when he forgot his homework, much to their exasperation. Mike, who was a worker in the Ignatius cafeteria, procured first honors in his first year and also played in intramurals.

STEPHEN J. CHYLIK

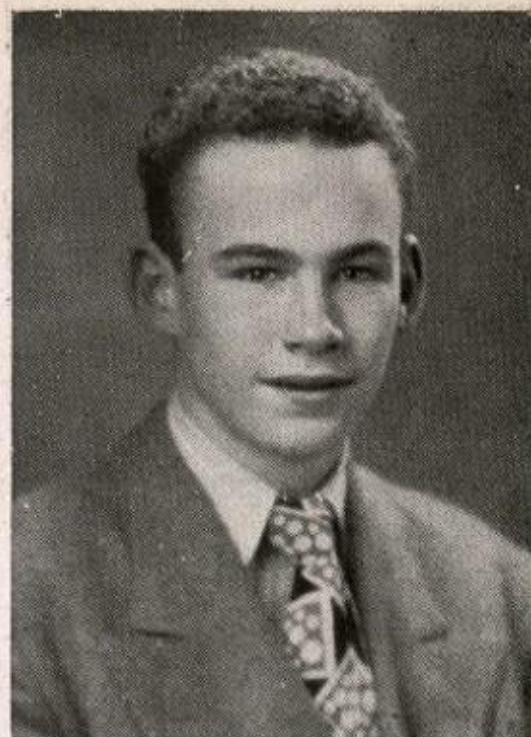

Steve, a capable devoted manager of both the football and basketball squads, was always there when a clean towel was needed. In addition to the long hours he worked as manager, he always found time for all intramurals.

GERALD H. CORRIGAN

His smooth manner and the big sundaes he served down at Hoffman's Ice Cream Parlor made "Jerry" a good man to know. A second-honor man, he helped spark the band drive with the many sales tax stamps he collected.

'4

FRANK J. CONSYDES

Piano player par excellence and wizard of verse, Frank livened up many a gym period with his smooth melodies and original poems. Class officer, two-year Sodalist, and boxing champ, Frank also proved himself a French student, amazing both profs and students.

HARRY C. COWPER

Dubbed the "Count" because of his aristocratic bearing, Harry won a varsity monogram for his rugged line play with the "46" Wildcats. Harry merited second honors for two years. The jovial redhead joined the Camera Club and the Sodality, and climaxed his activities with his election as vice-president of 4-G.

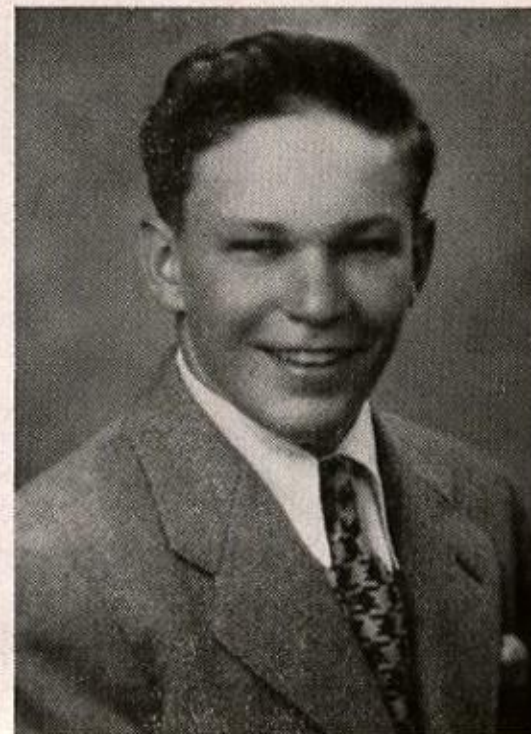

WILLIAM E. CROCK

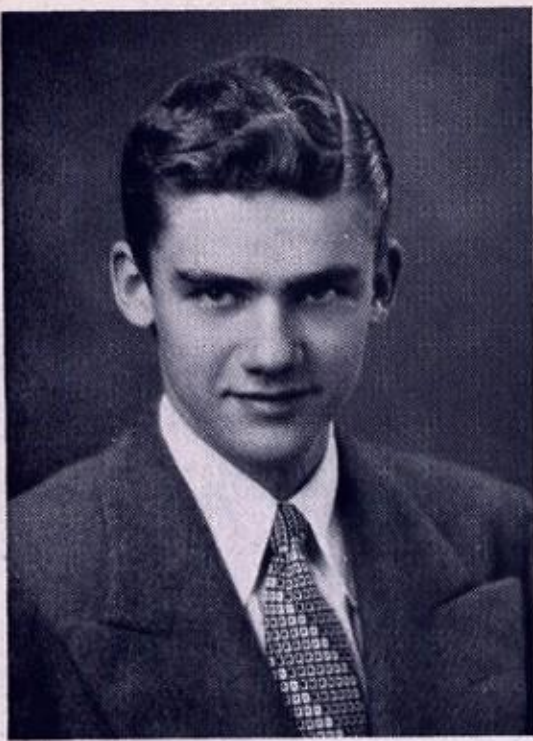

In his third year at Ignatius, "Butch" stood out as a member of the 1945 champion football outfit for his rugged play at guard. The following season he again proved himself capable by winning a berth on the All-Senate Team. This year he was elected president of his class. Bill hopes to make professional football his life work after he graduates from college.

S

GILBERT E. CORRIGAN

Gil draws a spotlight for his membership in the Radio Club and Sodality along with his election to class officer. Although friendly and easy going, his opponents found it hard to get along with him on the gridiron. "The Judge," a granite-like lineman, played all four years. Gifted with oratorical ability and always interested in public speaking, Gil was a four-year debater.

WILLIAM E. CULLEN

The proud owner of a 1946 convertible, Bob has the distinction of being numbered among the few Ignatians who drive their own cars to school. In first year, Bob played football for the frosh team. Friendly and likeable, he was elected a class officer in second-year and has been an active participant in intramurals.

'4

ROBERT A. DAMBACH

Bob attained first honors for all four years. A potential electrical engineer, he was an ardent Radio Club member, a three-year Sodalist, second-year band man, and Ignatian staff member. He was also a scribe for the Eye, working his way up to the assistant news editor post. Bob earned himself a reputation as a quiet, efficient, dependable Ignatian.

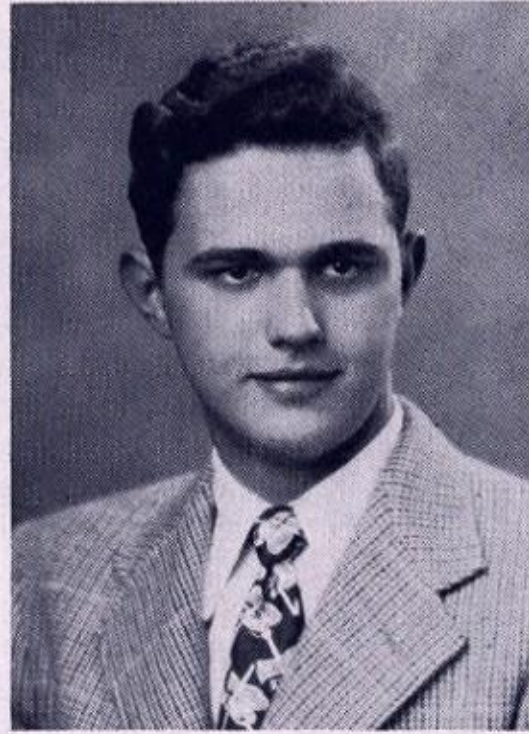

ROBERT M. CURRAN

Bob came to Ignatius in his third year, but it didn't take him long to catch on to the Ignatius spirit. A great mathematician, he received second honors in third year.

JOSEPH M. DANKO

Joe played football for three years, and also found time for studies, winning second honors for two years and first honors in freshman year. Easily singled out as a leader, Joe was elected class officer for four years.

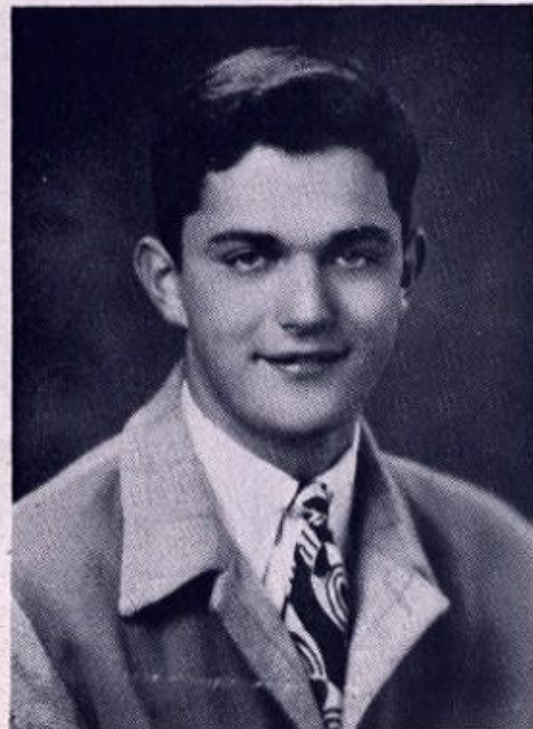

JAMES A. DANKO

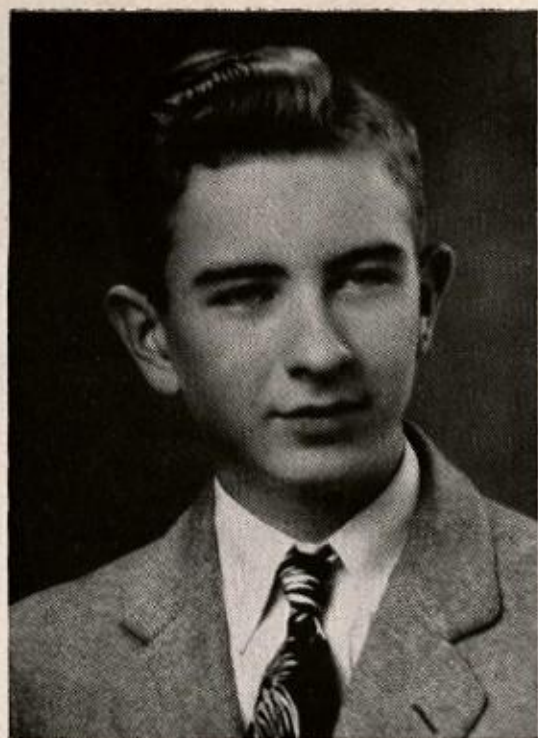

Jocular Jim joined the Camera Club in freshman year, and worked his way up to the job of Ace Cameraman for The Eye. You can always find him around Ignatius after school hours, working on the G. I. Eye or the Alumneye. Hats off to Jim, the kind of gent the world really needs.

DONALD C. DECHANT

In his four years at Ignatius Don was eminent as a Sodalist, an intramuralist, and a two-year honor man. Exponent of savoir faire and savoir vivre, he braved the elements for four years, daily journeying to Ignatius from Avon.

S

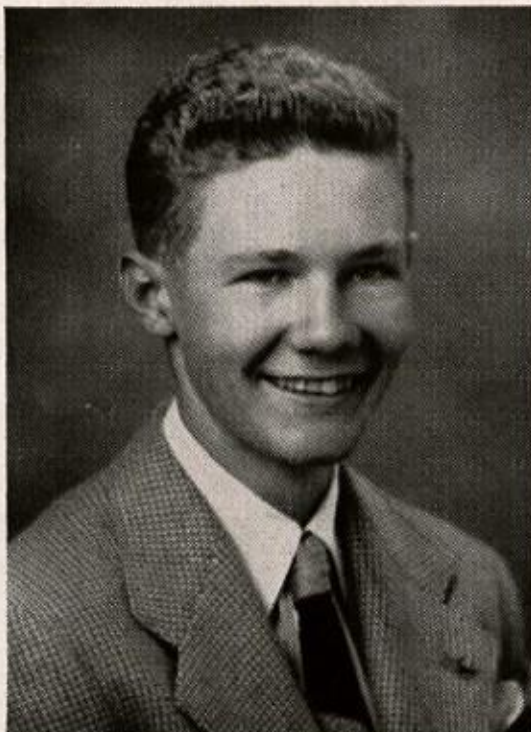

ROGER R. DEERY

Roge was a full time magician and Sodalist and also joined the Radio Club, Harlequins and Camera Club. "The Lodger" also led the boys in intramural baseball and basketball. Roger could always be found at the Midway eating his lunch at 12:15.

'4

ROBERT C. DeVOE

Mix a happy smile and a sense of humor and you have Bob. His stories about the "Heights" and his love of baseball will long be remembered by those who knew him. Bob was a loyal Sodalist in third and fourth years.

WILLIAM J. DEMPSEY

A four-year Hearnsmen, Bill's drum could always be heard when the band played. He entered the boxing tourney in first and third years. A lover of physics, he plans to become a first-rate engineer. Bill was another regular Midway patron.

ROBERT J. DURBIN

Always able to spin a yarn or a poem about his chickens or his friends, "B.V.D." always kept class lively. A loyal member of the Magic Club and manager of the golf team, Bob also won second honors and bolstered the Lightie football team in his first year.

JAMES P. DUGAN

A true star on the hardwood, Jim won a well deserved place in the Press West Senate championship team. His speed and accuracy made him very troublesome to opposing quintets. He started his athletic career playing frosh football and later that year turned his attention to basketball where he has won fame ever since.

JOHN P. ESPER

During his term at Ignatius, John served Mass at St. Mary's every morning. A fervent Sodalist and fourth-year mission collector, he could always be recognized by his ever-present smile and winning personality.

FRANK J. FANTA

The crooner of 4-D will always be remembered as one of "the boys." During the intramural basketball tournaments throughout his years at Ignatius, he managed himself on the hardwood as well as he managed the jay vee football team. He also served as class officer in his second year.

'4

DONALD J. FALLON

From the sound of Don's English compositions, we are inclined to believe he has studied Webster's Dictionary night and day. Aside from possessing a profound knowledge of words, he was a tricky basketeer, playing with the Lighties and intramural teams. His consistently winning smile broke the class sobriety.

ROGER B. FALGE

Roge stands above the average Ignatius student with his consistently high scholastic record. Known for his spelling prowess, he excelled as a four-year debater, four-year Eye reporter, Ignatian staff member, and a four-year Sodalist. Falge has not centered his activities on purely intellectual pursuits, for he has been a top notch netman for three years as well as a band member and a manager of the varsity basketball team.

KEVIN B. FERGUS

Kev possesses one of the most easy-going dispositions in the class. Always friendly and ready for conversation, "Fergie" made numerous pals in his four years at Ignatius. Active in intramurals and a Sodalist, his favorite subject is English.

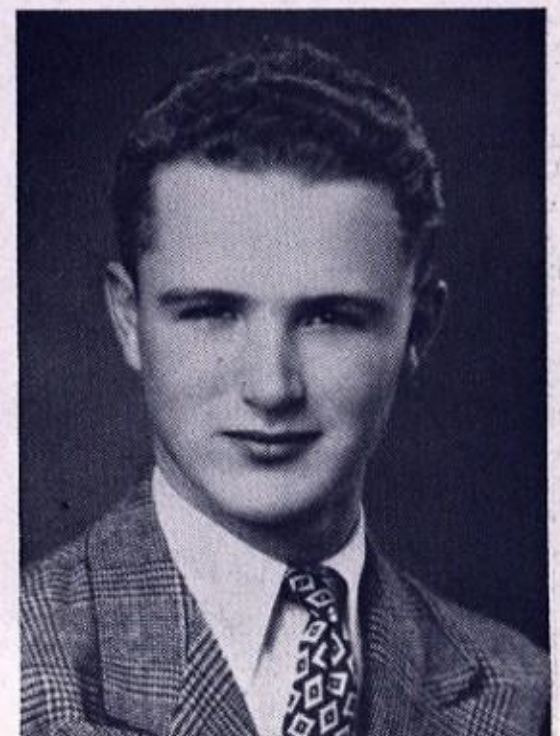

JAMES D. FITZGERALD

Fitz, the Harlequin moneyman and I.A.A. president, left his mark at Ignatius by his active participation in almost every club at school—the Debaters, Magicians, Radio Club, Camera Club, and the Sodality. Furthermore, Jim's key chain was well weighted down with Harlequin Keys.

S

ARTHUR C. FELLENSTEIN

One of the sparks of 4-B was diminutive Art. A four-year Sodalist, he received second honors for three years. He also distinguished himself in freshman year on the Lightie football squad, but always was interested in the intramural teams too.

JOHN D. FITZGERALD

"Fitz" in his spare time stayed with sports. In his senior year he joined the varsity football squad. In the short time he played, he drew many a cheer from his Heights admirers. Don also played intramural baseball and football.

JAMES R. FOOS

A part-time Sodalist and Magic Club member, "Fuzzy" kept the boys in 4-F on the alert. A great physicist, he is hoping to be an engineer. Jim also kept himself busy with boxing and intramural baseball.

'4

JAMES E. FOERSTNER

High honor man and four-year Sodalist, Jim was president of the Sophomore Debaters. He also joined the Camera, Radio, Classic, Magic, and Stamp Clubs. In intramurals Jim distinguished himself on the hardwood, played second base, and boxed.

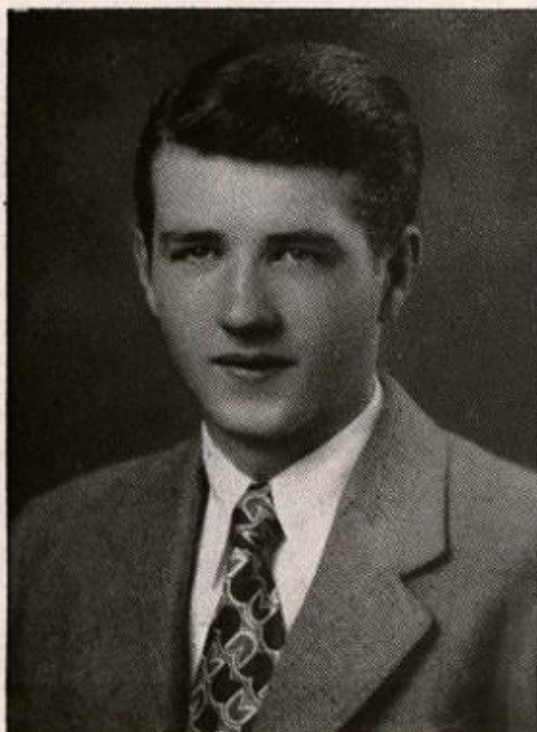

ALBERT J. FOWLER

A Sodalist, boxer, and intrepid member of intramural teams, "Buddy" won many friends at Ignatius by his pleasant drawl and quiet sense of humor. He was also a valuable member of the frosh football squad.

WALTER N. GALVIN

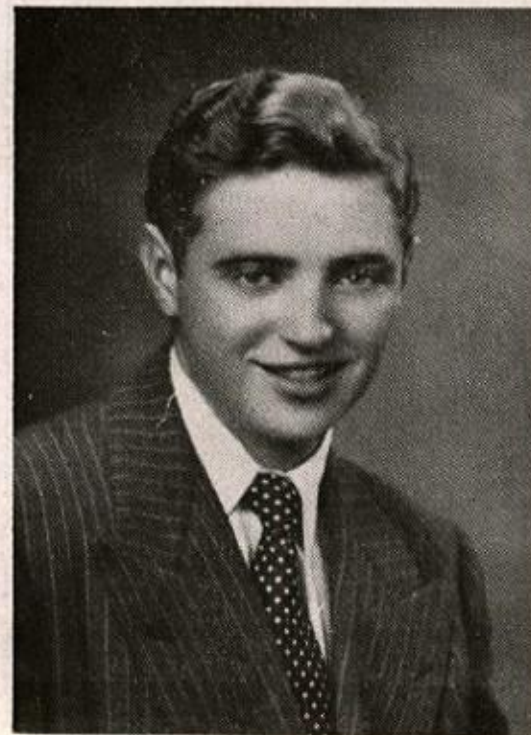

Whether it was advice or a cigarette to be had, Walt was always obliging. He played varsity basketball in his third year, was also a frosh footballer, a first- and second-year boxer, and a distinguished intramuralist.

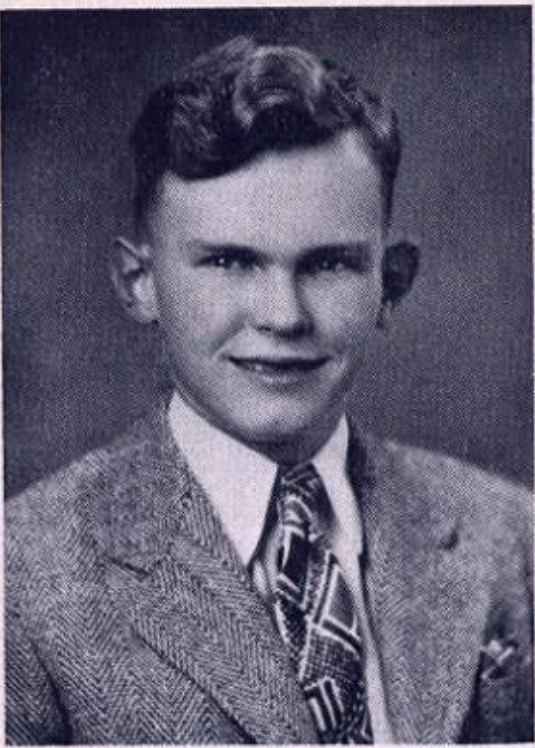

HUBERT J. FORREY

With the aid of many of his friends, "Bugs" contributed plenty of spirit to Ignatius cheering section. Not only did he contribute his spirit to Ignatius in the stands, but also on the Lightie eleven his first two years. Besides gaining recognition for his class in intramurals, he won second honors in his first year.

THOMAS L. GAVAN

As a magician, Tom always had something up his sleeve. Tom was a member of the Camera, Radio, and Art Clubs. In his last year he became chemistry lab assistant. He was a figure to be looked up to, not only in stature, but as a giant figure of Ignatian spirit.

'4

ROBERT D. GILLIS

Bob strolled through his high school days with the ease of a man of security. Class treasurer in his second year, Bob played all intramurals and was a two-year pugilist.

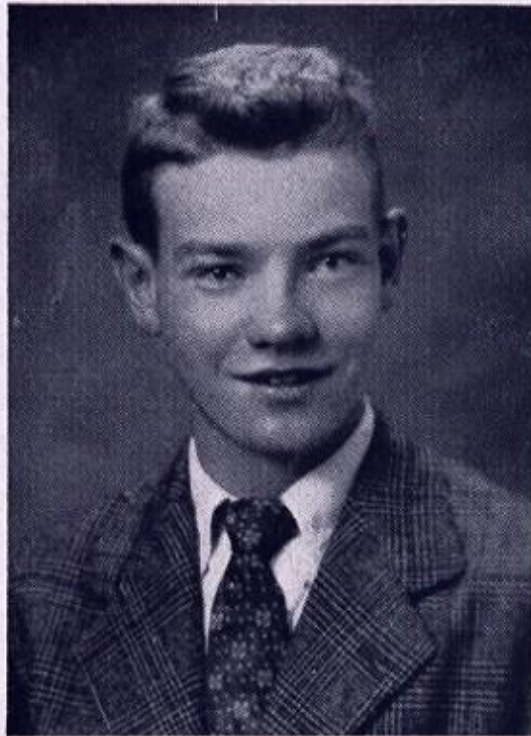

ROBERT J. GILL

In sophomore year, Bob was chosen treasurer of his class. A Lightie footballer, he was a three-year Sodalist, two-year second honor man, and a persevering mission collector for three years. A magician, Bob learned his sleight-of-hand from Father Gillespie.

WILLIAM P. GILMORE

Big Bill was a four-year Sodalist, a Radio Club man, and an intramuralist. A three-year debater, "Guillaume" and his partner won the sophomore championship and were semi-finalists in the Bourdaloue Tourney. A shifty boxer with a long reach, he has been a finalist in three years of battling in the squared circle.

ROBERT F. GILMORE

In junior year, Bob took his first crack at debating and with Tom Shea as a partner he came up with a championship in the Bourdaloue Tournament. A child of Mary for all four years, Bob played lightweight football and was a Radio Club member. A cunning pugilist, he won a championship in freshman year, and has punched his way to the semi-finals for the last two years.

FRANCIS A. GNIZAK

A great fellow, well liked by those who knew him, Frank could always be depended on to help in any class activity. A four-year honor man, Frank was an ardent Sodalist in his third and fourth years.

S

CHARLES A. GOOD

Charlie combined in himself the qualities necessary for honors in physics and the know-how to cope with a radio. He was a four-year Sodalist, Magic and Radio Club member. Charlie, who won honors for four years, was another of those faithful fans who kept the flame of Ignatius spirit burning.

'4

GERALD J. HAGERTY

A four-year Sodalist and first-honor man, "Pete" gained recognition not only at Ignatius but all over the city for his finesse as a magician. A member of the Radio, Classics and Debating Clubs, he was also the great financier of 4-A.

DANIEL D. GRAPENTIEN

A quiet student who never let anything bother him, Dan was a true lover of physics. He was a member of the Camera and Radio Clubs, entered the boxing tournament in his first year, and gained second honors in his first and third years.

JOHN D. HAYES

A courageous gent, John braved the dangerous travel through an uncharted wilderness in commuting daily from his home in Elyria to Ignatius High. A Sodalist and a lightweight footballer, "Long John" fought his way to a coveted championship in the boxing shows of 1946 and 1947.

JOHN J. HANLEY

From the pastures of the far West Side came Red to pep up the school with his enthusiastic spirits. He was a great fan of Father Stejskal's Radio Club.

LOUIS P. HEHMAN

Louie, a loyal "Heightsian," played football with the Lighties and all intramurals. His favorite sport, however, is asking questions. "Draft Bait's" life ambition is to make a million dollars.

G
S

VINCENT T. HENNIE

A devoted Sodalist and active Ignatian, Vince won first honors throughout his years at Ignatius, highest honors in freshman year. "Blondie," an appropriate sobriquet for Vince, was a freshman class officer, member of the I. A. A. and writer for the G. I. Eye and '46 Ignatian.

JAMES J. HOGAN

Jim was a popular man among his classmates and always willing to help. A four-year Sodalist and magician, two-year Hearnsmen and debater, and Radio Club member in his senior year, Jim is a real asset to the class of '47.

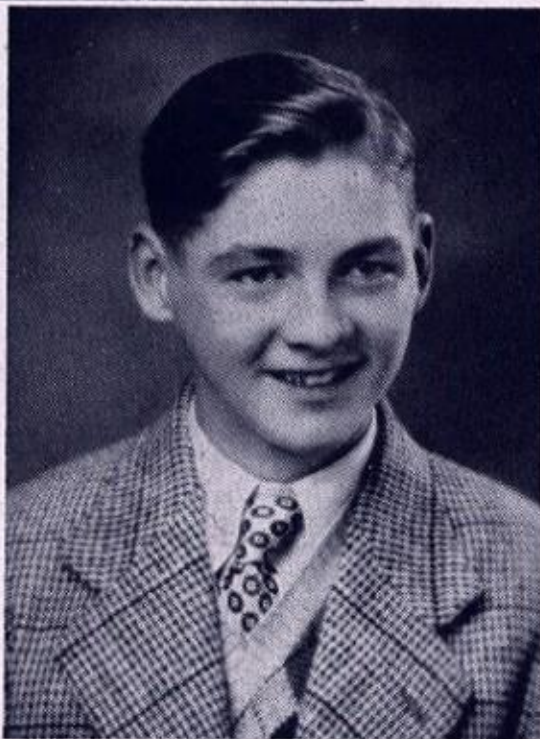

RALPH P. HIGGINS

An honorman, Ralph was also a loyal Sodalist, serving as vice-prefect in his sophomore year. Ralph was elected vice-president of his class in his second and third years. A Radio club member, Ralph entered the boxing tourney three years and earned himself a rep as a great slugger.

LEONARD R. HONES

Lenny, who boxed and played baseball in his freshman year, was a Sodalist and a magician in his first and second years, and a Radioman in his senior year. Lenny always had a quiet friendly word for a classmate, and his graduation will leave a conspicuous space in his Alma Mater.

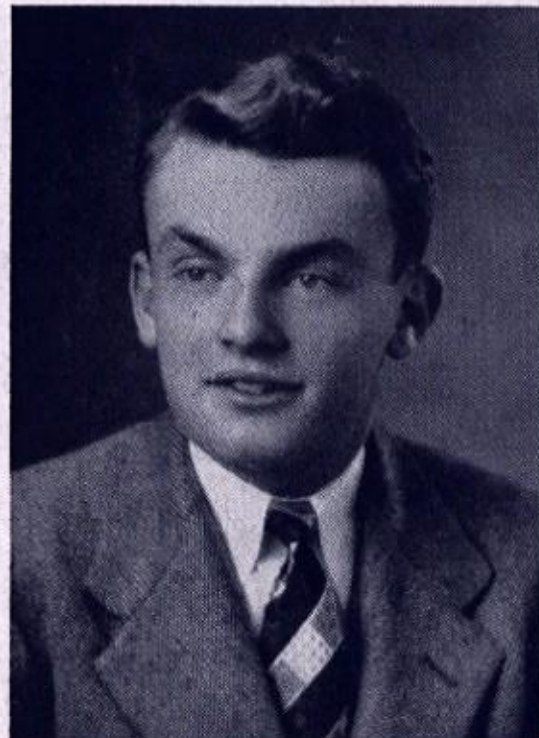

WILLIAM J. HOGUE

A four-year honor man and one of the best skaters at Winterhurst, Bill, playing third base, was a key man on the 4-A intramural baseball team. Bill's favorite subject is physics and his greatest desire, to see Ignatius beat Latin.

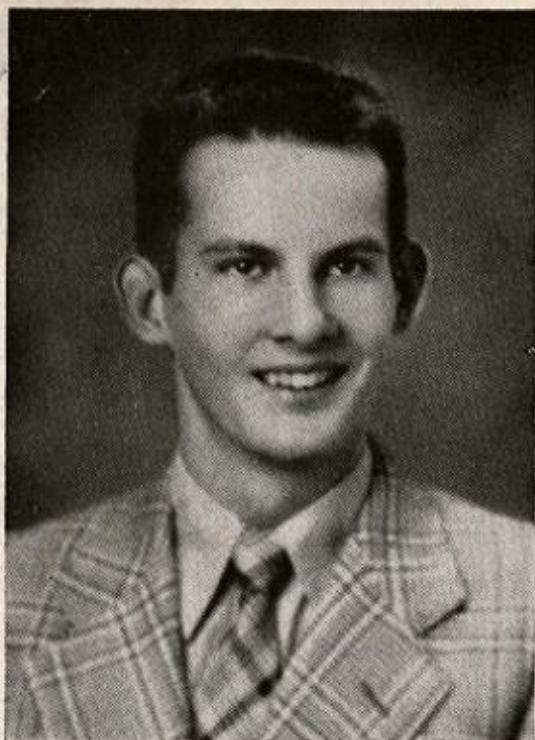

JOSEPH P. HORAN

Joe varied his activities from first honor man in first and second years to secretary of the Frosh Debaters. Then too he debated, belonged to the Classics Club and played intramurals. Joe's favorite pastime is popular music. This man is really up on his records.

WILBERT C. HOSHSTRASSER

Will, tall and popular, was elected president and vice-president of his junior and senior classes respectively. In his junior year, Will worked with the Christmas dance committee. A regular Midway patron, he was also a great intramural basketball and baseball player.

WILLIAM V. HOUGH

Bill was famous throughout the city for his band, famous at Ignatius for his huge lunches. A first-honor man, loyal Sodalist, and four-year band member, "Polyphemus" served as Art Club secretary in his junior and senior years. He was also a class officer in his freshman year and a devoted member of the Classics Club.

'47

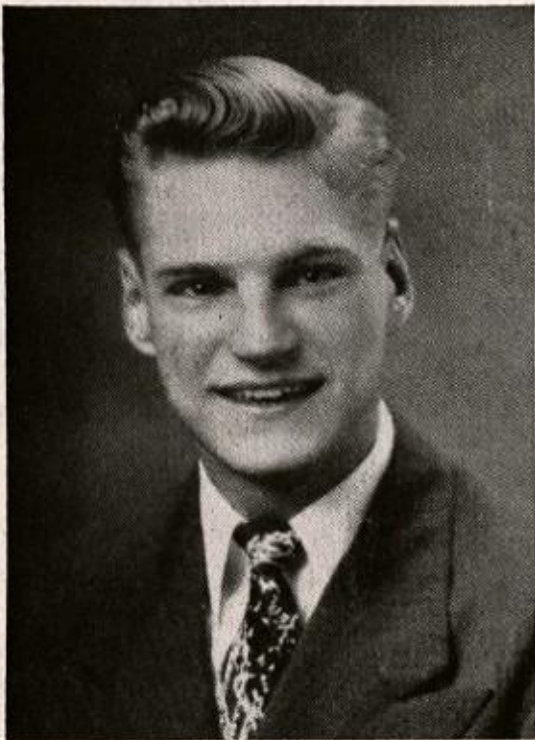

THOMAS F. HOUGH

Tom, a four-year honor man, was justly labeled Odysseus as a result of his wanderings. Almost always seen with Jim Foerstner, Tom participated in Sodality activities and intramurals. Tom could always be found at the Midway come 12:15.

EUGENE J. HRITZ

A great man for intramurals, Gene was a good student as well as a lad who gave the Scientific Course a run for its money. He knocked off first honors in his first year, second honors in his third year. Gene joined the Sodality in his third year, and the Radio Club in his last year.

GEORGE W. HUBER

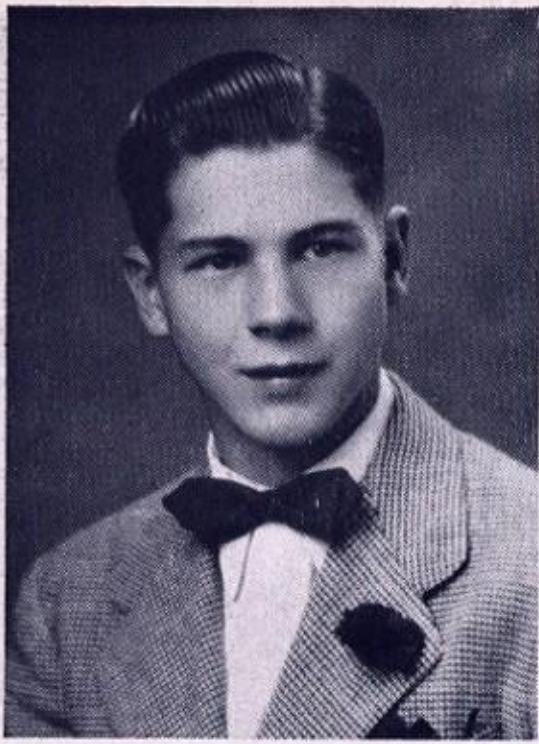

"Rex" became famous at Ignatius for his spectacular homework papers. Loyal Sodalist, Classics Club and Radio Club member, he earned second honors in his first two years and first honors in his third. George plans to use his experience as chemistry lab assistant to become a physician.

G

RICHARD J. HOYE

A quiet guy and well liked by those who knew him, Dick started his freshman year as an outstanding lineman on the frosh football squad. He was a member of the jay vee team in his third year and climaxed his career by winning a berth on the varsity eleven, where he played a bang-up game at tackle. Dick was also a member of the Sodality, Monogram Club, and a member of intramural teams.

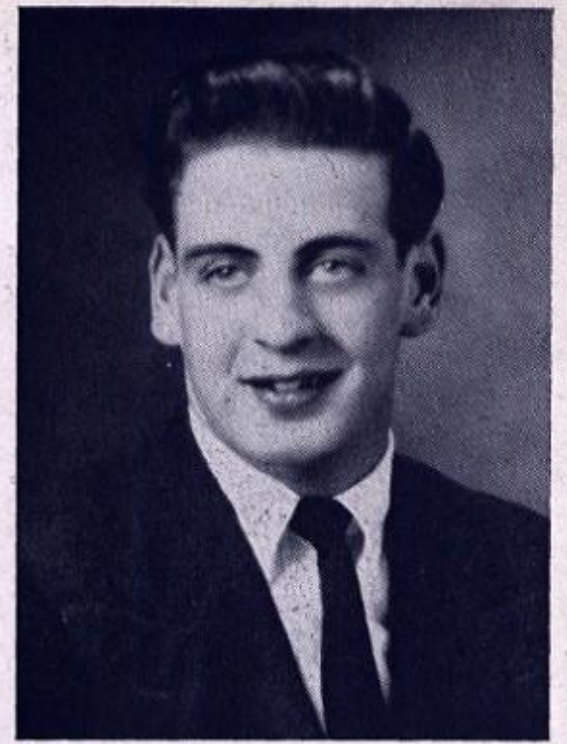

JOHN R. HYDOCK

His four-year stay at Ignatius was highlighted by a four-year membership in the band. He became secretary of the Hearnsmen in senior year. John, who was a Sodalist, intramuralist, and a member of the Christmas dance committee, joined the boxing tournament in his second year.

'4

RAYMOND V. JARACZ

Whenever anything is afoot and Ray gives it a hand with his talented brush, the project shot ahead. Ray was a second honor man in his second and third years, Eye staff typist, Harlequin mainstay, Radio, Stamp, and Art Club member. Climaxing all this, he was elected president of the Art Club in his fourth year.

RALPH J. JAMIESON

A leader and an athlete. That's the best way to describe "Jamie." His leadership was proved when he was elected class officer every year. He started his athletic career on the frosh football squad, then went on to play jay vee, and finally varsity football in his last two years. "Jamie" also served on the Prom committee.

FRANK C. JOHANEK

A loyal Hearnsmen, Sodalist class officer, and Radio Club member, Frank played intramurals and jay vee football. On the Eye staff he was exchange editor and advertising manager. Third year saw Frank as drum major of the band.

ROBERT J. JASANY

Finding time for such things as frosh football, debating, boxing, intramurals, Radio Club, the I.A.A., and mind-cracking annual work, "Nails" was chosen class officer, pulled down second honors, and made a lot of us glad we came to Ignatius.

ROBERT A. KEELAN

Bob used to rattle off French like a second Charles Boyer. A magical wizard, he was a member of the Magic Club for four years. Bob, a four-year Sodalist, was well known around school not only as a magician but as "one of the boys."

MICHAEL J. KELLY

Three years as class officer and two as Sodality secretary, speak well for Mike, a true leader. Honor man for four years, he played frosh, jay vee, and varsity football. After winning a novice trophy in the boxing tourney, Mike was a rough-and-ready challenger for two more years. As a Harlequin, he was the tough-talking Patton in "Ramshackle Inn."

RICHARD J. KMIECIK

The shiek's capacity for work has shown itself to be as complete as his readiness for fun. A competent student, Rich won second honors for four years, played lightweight football, and was a vehement participant in intramurals. Membership in the senior debaters and four years in the Sodality climax his activities as a sterling Ignatian.

ANTHONY J. KIRSCHENSTEINER

Tony is a favorite with the boys at Ignatius because of his pleasing manner and his gifted piano and organ playing. A. J. joined the band as a junior and did a good job on the bells. An ardent Sodalist and a zealous musician, he helped inaugurate a new activity at school when he became director of the Sodality choir.

JOHN F. KIRCHNER

A two-year mission collector and always interested in intramurals, "Kirch" played basketball, baseball and snooker (it is rumored) with that "professional style." He is best known at Ignatius for his popularity with the "Heights Boys."

ANTHONY J. KMIECK

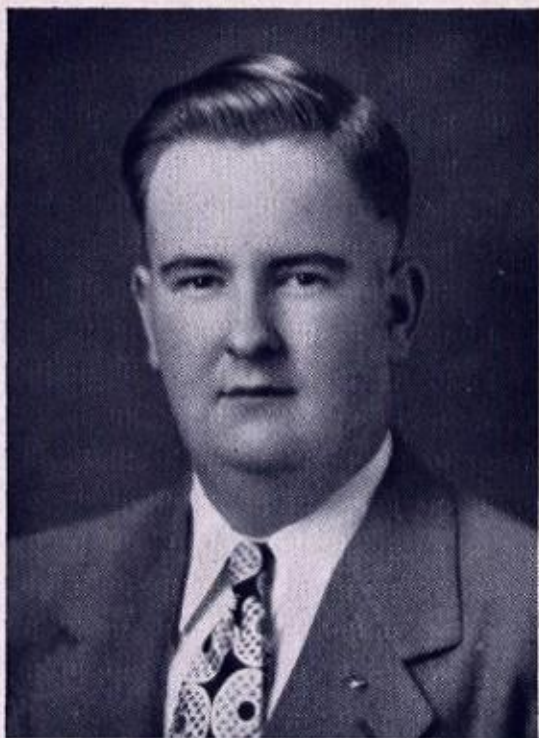

The "Doc" will be remembered at Ignatius for promoting Catholic Action. For two years, A. J. captained the Catholic Press Crusade in his classes, led the U. B. subscription drive. A quiet and persevering student, Tony was a four-year Sodalist, a Radio Club member and a two-year boxer.

STEPHEN A. KOCSAN

In a class with those who really buckle down to study is where we classify Steve. And with good reason too, since he gained first honors for three years. Steve was in the Sodality for two years, and also played intramural basketball as a freshman and sophomore.

ALLAN R. KORB

Al, a big fellow with a bigger heart, scholastically was a teacher's dream. He gained first honors for two years and highest honors in his remaining two. He also was a four-year Sodalist and Radio Club enthusiast in fourth year. Following Ignatian sports as diligently as the players, Al seldom missed any of the games. During baseball season it was hard to get one by this polished intramuralist.

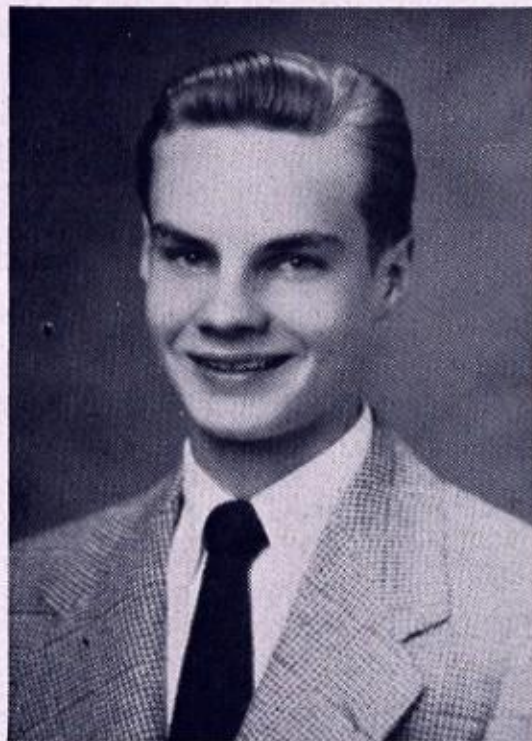

JOSEPH A. LADA

Joe possessed a singular ability for learning languages which was often very surprising. French was his specialty. He won second honors as a junior, and was a four-year Sodality man. His ability in intramurals and baseball proved to be a constant headache to opponents.

BERNARD A. KUHL

Drum-major Bud did a grand job of putting the Ignatius Band through its paces. A four-year second-honor man, loyal Sodalist and freshman Magic Club member, he also was a member of the Classics Club. Bud plans to become a mechanical engineer.

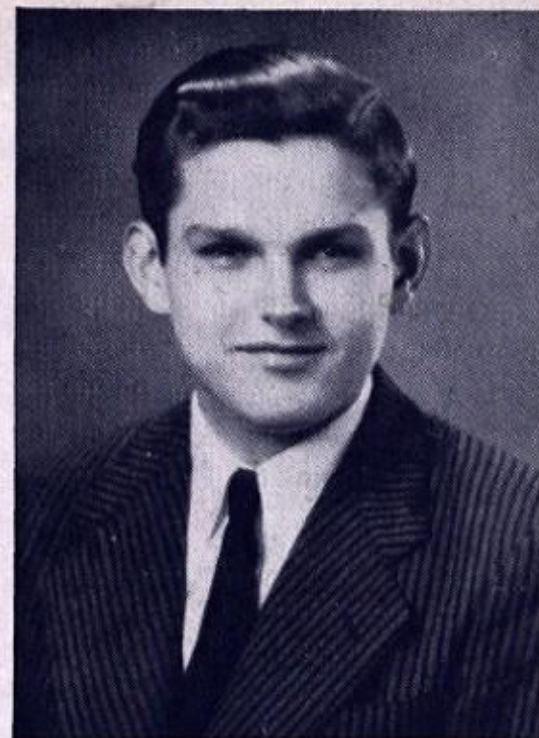

ROBERT F. KUNESH

An active participation in frosh football and intramurals has made quite an athlete out of Bob. In his freshman year he merited first honors and held membership in the Sodality and the Camera Club. Bob, though a quiet boy, will long be remembered by the members of his class.

ARTHUR E. KSZYCZKOWSKI

If Ignatius ever offered a course in Polish, this is the man who would take the honors. But "Scotty" discovered that he liked French even better and he didn't do badly with it. He gained second honors as a freshman, was a Radio Club regular, and played intramurals.

JAMES W. LANDERS

A two-year second-honorman, Jim was a loyal Sodalist, working with the Sodality Christmas dance Committee this year. As a freshman, Jim was elected secretary of his class and also joined the Magic Club. The Radio Club and the Ignatius profited by his labor this year. Jim boxed and played Lightie and varsity football as well as Intramural basketball and baseball.

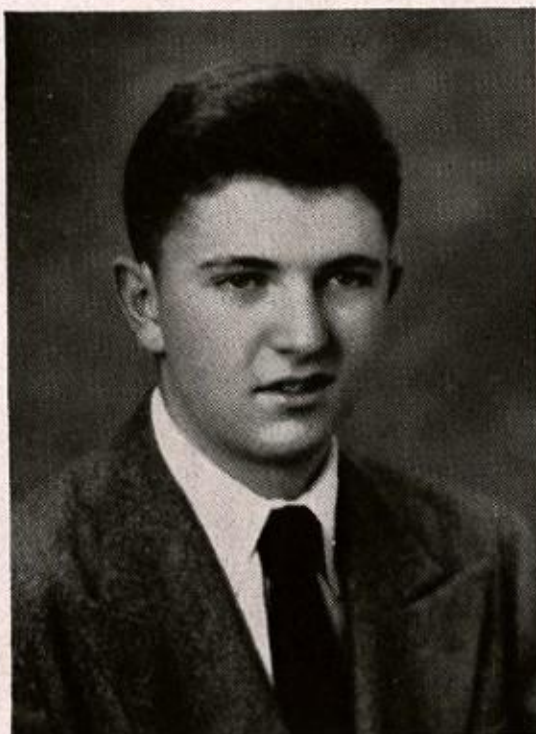

THOMAS J. LANG

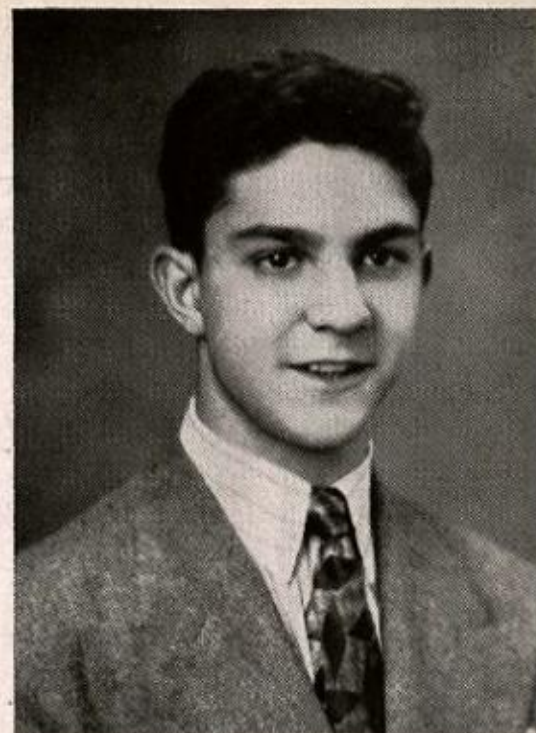

Tom will always be remembered for the laughter he brought with him everywhere he went. An honor man and class officer, Tom played jay vee football and all intramurals. A loyal Sodalist and Radioman, Tom was also prominent in Lakewood social circles.

JOHN P. LAVELLE

"Dante," as he was called by his classmates, had a knack for making friends at Ignatius. We'll never forget his huge frame and his broad Irish grin. Jack has boxing and intramurals to his credit, and as treasurer served the Blessed Virgin in the Sodality in his freshman year.

'47

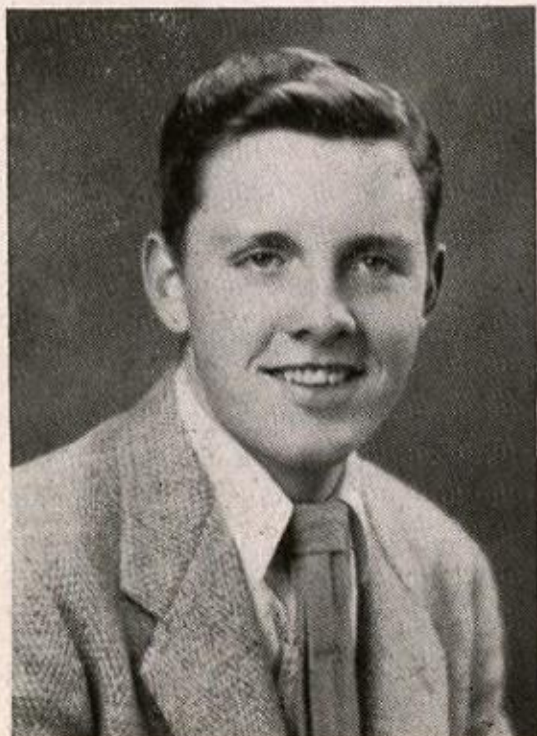

JAMES J. LaSALVIA

Jim, an honorman, joined the Magic Club as a freshman and sophomore and signed with the Radio Club this year. He helped the cause of Patna as a Mission Collector in third year. "Hammer-head" entered the ring in freshman year and fought his way to the semi-finals this year.

THOMAS E. LENAHA

Tom could always be seen with his group of laughing boys near the telephone booth at Heck's. The pride of St. Rose's, he was a Sodality member in first year and played all intramurals for four years.

EDWARD G. LAWLOR

Ed should have little trouble realizing his ambition to be a business man because of his ability to make friends with everybody. A Sodalist and intramuralist, he was well known at Lakewood as first baseman on a local sandlot team.

WILLIAM E. LIBENS

Bill had the rare knack of knowing when to keep his mouth shut and his books open. This carried him through Ignatius with many friends and few jugs. However, when he stepped on the intramural basketball court it meant nothing but trouble for the opposing team.

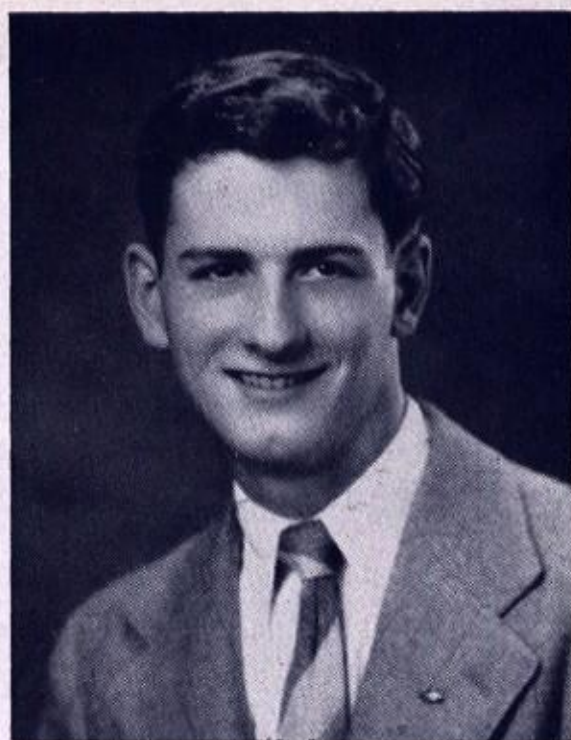

JAMES J. LIVINGSTON

We could invariably depend on Jim to liven up things. His good humor linked with his go-getting spirit gained him the respect of his classmates. A loyal Sodalist, and fourth year pugilist, Jim merited second honors for three years, and played the clarinet for two years in the band.

ARTHUR T. LUTZ

An industrious and congenial fellow, Art developed a facility for real study. A member of the Camera Club for two years, his hobby and main interest lies in cameras. We are sure that his hobby will serve him well in future life.

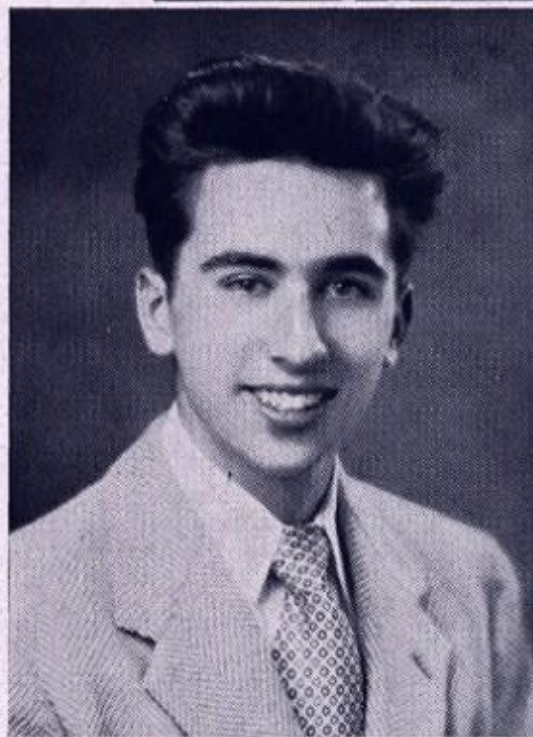

JOHN F. LOFTUS

"Lofty" was one of those fellows you would be proud to call a friend. Winning first and second honors in frosh and sophomore years, he was always on hand at Sodality and Camera Club meetings. Between studies and work he found time to play intramurals and write for The Eye. He was also a member of the Ignatian staff.

JOSEPH A. MACK

An honorman, four-year Sodalist and three-year Eye staff member, Joe became sports editor in third year. He was elected secretary of his class in freshman year. A distinguished south-paw hurler, Joe also played frosh, jay vee, and varsity football, and basketball, and boxed in freshman year.

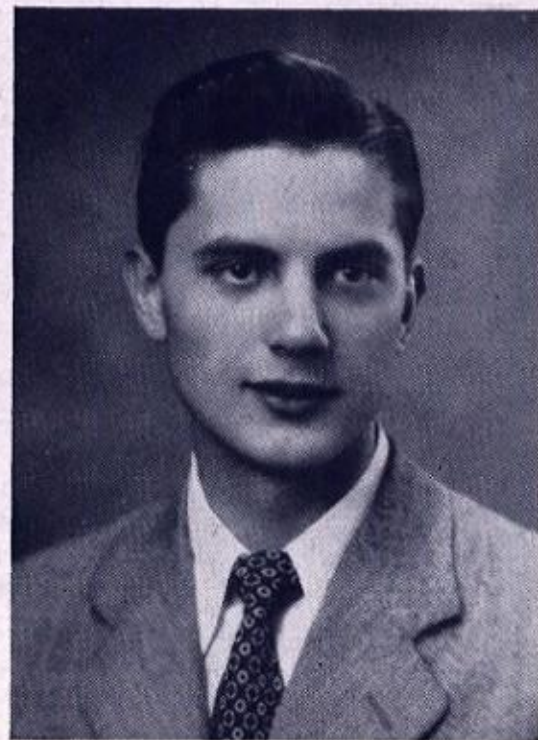

JOSEPH E. LYNCH

Everyone will remember Joe and his "appropriate humor for every occasion." An honor man, debater, mission collector, member of the Eye staff and Art Club, Joe used his extracurricular time well. He also played all intramurals and boxed in his first year.

JAMES R. MAJOR

Three years as class officer speak well for Diamond Jim's popularity with his classmates. Bubbling with personality, he takes pride in relating funny incidents which he has seen while working at innumerable jobs. A generous Ignatian, Jim looks forward to a businessman's career.

JOHN C. MALADY

"Gabby," seldom seen or heard, was nevertheless elected class treasurer for three years. Jack, an honorman all the way, boxed in his freshman year, played lightweight basketball and participated in all intramurals. Quite a fellow that "Little Caesar."

'4

RICHARD E. MAYER

Dick was esteemed by all for his willingness to work both in the Sodality and on the gridiron. An Ignatian who gained a wealth of friends with his jovial personality and interested attitude, "The Galloping Halfback" played Lightie, jay vee and varsity football. Dick was also a two-year honor man and a two-year class officer.

ROBERT J. MARQUARD

To hold first honors for four years isn't easy, but Bob did it and developed a love for French while doing it. His being an active Sodalist for four years may explain where he got the drive to keep at his studies. Never one to disturb anyone during class, Bob was liked by all.

JOHN F. McCaffrey

John was the only potential lawyer in 4-A. A two-year honor man, he worked on the Eye, and was a member of the Classics Club and Sodality. Jack's perpetual good nature and pint-sized lunches for a king-sized frame will never be forgotten by his classmates.

CHARLES J. McBRIDE

In senior year Chuck took an active interest in the Radio Club, distinguishing himself by constructing his own receiving set. A faithful Sodalist for four years, he also won second honors. Aside from having a mania for math and physics, he enjoyed membership in the Magic Club. Intramural basketball rounded out Charlie's day.

GEORGE W. McCARTHY

Spending his summer vacation as a merchant seaman on the commercial vessels of the Great Lakes, George learned the ways of a waterman and earned his tuition besides. An Ignatian with an eye on medicine as a career, he has been active in lightweight football and intramurals.

PHILIP R. McCARTY

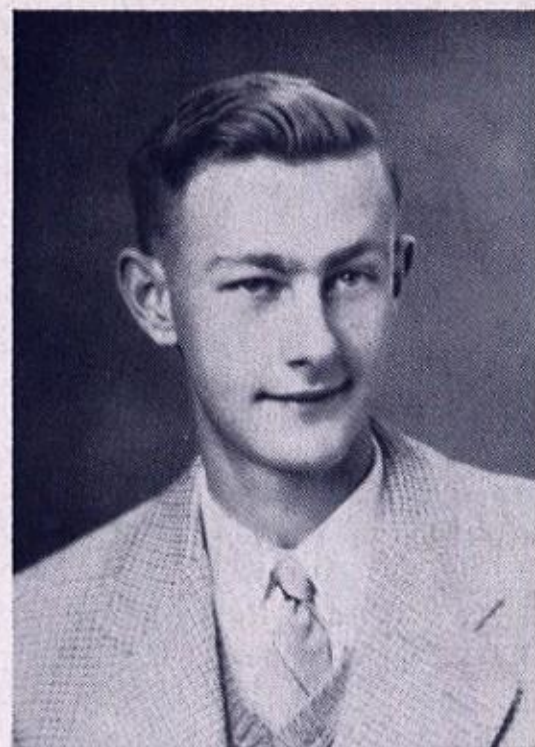

A great sportsman, Phil was well known around Ignatius. He made the frosh football squad and from there went on to star in all intramurals. Phil took a crack at a trophy in the '47 Blue and Gold boxing tournament. Life ambition: to be a millionaire.

THOMAS J. McDONOUGH

Second-honorman, Sodalist, and Classic Club member, "Big Moe" saved more than one of us with a quick translation two minutes before Mr. Bowman's axe fell. A favorite with his classmates, Tom was a spark plug in 4-B, always promoting the missions.

'47

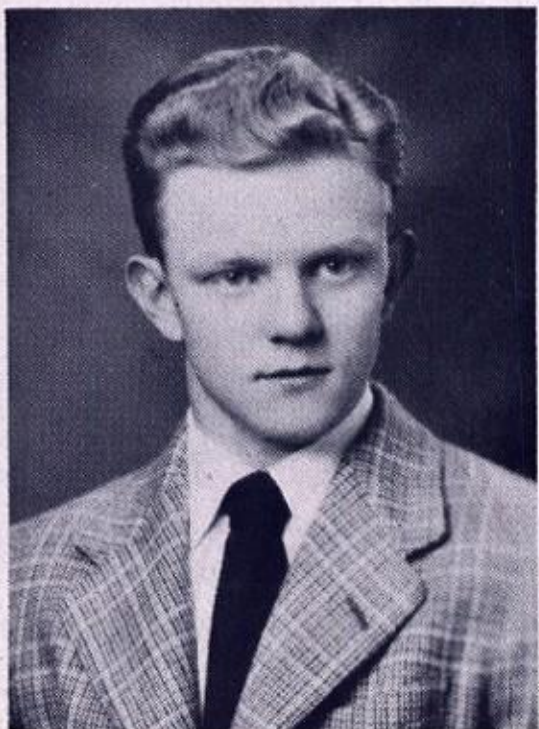

JOHN L. McCOY

John earned his way through Ignatius and is rightly proud of it. A two-year Sodalist and well liked by all, John was elected class officer in his third year. He also played Lightie football in first year.

JAMES F. McHENRY

A human dynamo, Frank was always active in class, much to the dismay of his teachers. Endowed with a personality that wins friends, Frank acquired many a buddy during his days at the school on West 30th Street. In second year he was elected class officer; he was a Sodalist for a year, a Blue and Gold glover, and a four-year intramuralist.

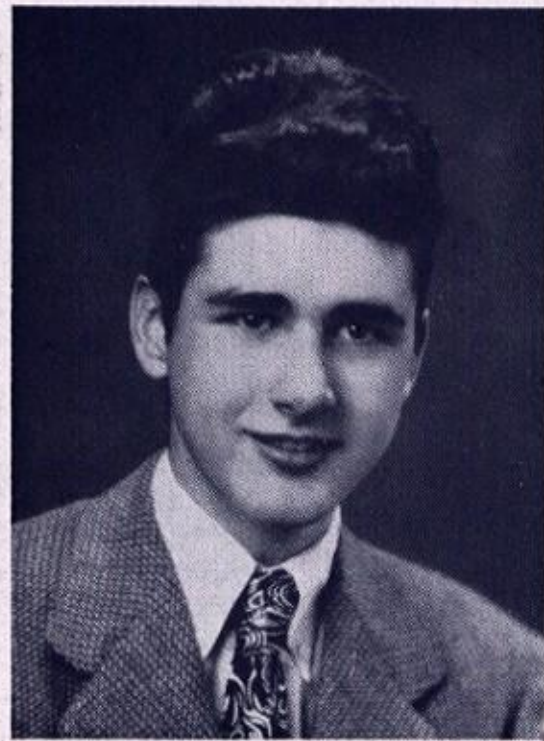

JOSEPH P. McGARRY

Although Joe was a member of the Sodality, Classics Academy, Magic Club, and Choir, the place where he really shone was in his studies. He always earned first honors and rose to the position of the Eye news editor in his third year.

JOHN J. McHUGH

John was the man who combined in himself the qualities of a grand classmate and hard worker to become a loyal Ignatius alumnus. John received first and second honors in his first two years, played Lightie baseball and basketball, was a Sodality member as a soph, and played intramurals in his spare time.

JOHN P. McKay

"Mac," a loyal Sodalist in his freshman year, played intramural baseball as a frosh, soph, and junior. In physics he was quite a student, perhaps because it was his favorite subject. With this penchant for science and four years at Ignatius behind him, he hopes to do well in the world.

DANIEL J. McLAUGHLIN

"Monk" plans to become an electrical engineer because he wants to get a big shock out of life. A loyal Sodalist, Radio and Magic Club member, he also played intramural basketball and baseball.

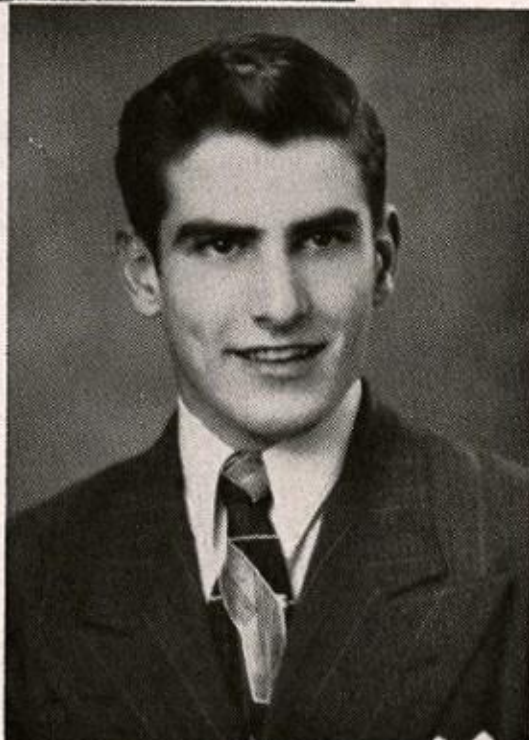

RICHARD D. McKEON

Dick was a successful first-honor man, Sodalist, camera enthusiast, and Eye staff managing editor and photographer during his four years. He was also a frequent winner of highest honors and was a class officer in freshman year. "Bruno" also worked on the annual staff, held membership in the Radio Club. Truly an Ignatian!

PATRICK H. McNEELEY

Faithful to our Blessed Lady, Pat belonged to the Sodality for four years. Possessed of an exceptionally vivid interest in physics and math, he belonged to the Radio Club.

JOHN F. McMULLEN

Jack has been a Sodalist and in first year he took a crack at the manly art of self defense. He carried the Ignatius spirit into St. Ann's CYO projects by holding down the position of president. His broad grin coupled with his penchant for jokes made "Mac" a well liked Ignatian.

JOHN W. MELLO

A gifted brush-wielder, "Mello" spent most of his spare time drawing the posters which always preceded any Ignatius event. A loyal Sodalist in his third and fourth years, John received second honors in his first two years.

RAYMOND T. MILLER

Ray played football throughout his days at Ignatius. He made the championship varsity football team in his third year after playing Lightie and jay vee the years before. A Sodalist for two years, and first-year boxer, he was elected treasurer of class 4-F. Ray rounded out his sports activity with intramural baseball and basketball.

'47

BERNARD F. MOONEY

"Hey you", as he was known to classmates, was the other third of the DeVoe, Wieland trio, which kept the teachers constantly in stitches. A freshman Sodalist, active member of all intramural leagues and a four-year hitch-hiker, he was well liked by his classmates.

ROBERT A. MINNERY

Bob wasn't able to fill his schedule with extra-curricular activities, but he did get a lot out of chemistry as taught by Mr. Duggan. It is rumored that he also spends considerable time in a lab of his own at home.

HUGH J. MORGAN

A member of the Classics Club, Hugh wrote for the G. I. Eye, Alumneye, and participated in Sodality activities all four years. Aside from earning first honors, "Flash" also played Lightie football, intramural basketball, baseball. The future engineer also assisted in the library and tried his hand at boxing.

JOHN B. MOORE

John was a quiet student who never let anything bother him. He was a two-year Sodalist and entered the Blue and Gold boxing tourney in first year.

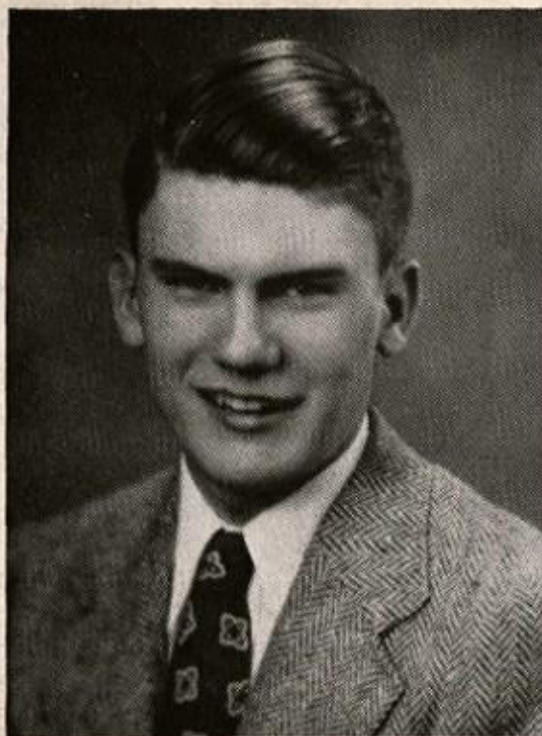

JAMES H. MURRAY

"Moe", in his first year at Ignatius, gained second honors, was elected class treasurer, played Lightie football and boxed. Jim also played jay vee football and intramural basketball. The teachers and students that knew Moe will long remember him and his witty sayings.

CHARLES G. O'BRIEN

A loyal Sodalist, Chuck was also an athlete. Starting in his freshman year, he played with the Lighties and worked his way up, via the jay vees, to the varsity football team. Chuck, a Monogram Club member, also played varsity baseball for two years and intramural basketball and baseball.

RICHARD H. NORTHAM

A veteran of several years of Navy service, Dick was a constant help to his fellow classmen. His sea stories always kept a crowd around him at Heck's. Dick entered the boxing tourney in his first year and played varsity football the following year.

THOMAS P. O'DONNELL

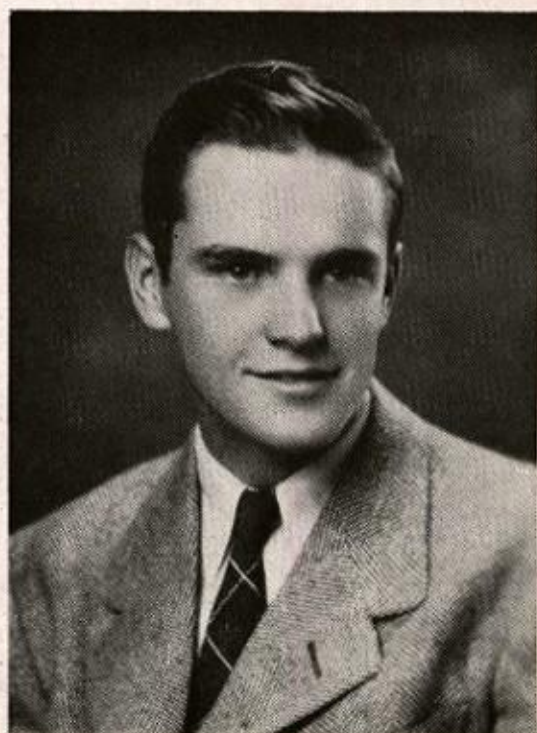

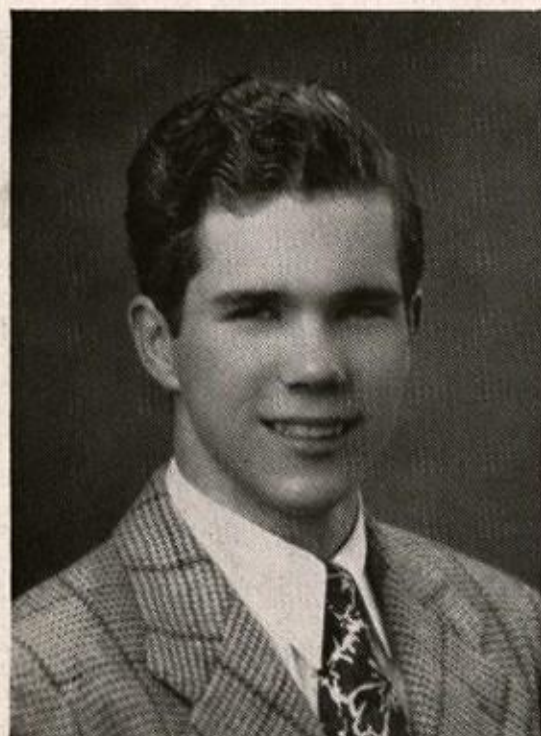

Everybody's friend is Tom "T.O.D." O'Donnell. Tom is very anxious to enter the Marine Air Corps. He is so sincere in his wish that he will undoubtedly make a crack pilot. A loyal Sodalist and first-year boxer, Tom also served on the Christmas dance committee in his third year.

DONALD J. O'CONNOR

Snatching first honors as a freshman, Don completed his last year with second honors. Prefect of the Freshman Sodality, captain of the Lighties and class officer in first year, Don started his days at Ignatius with a bang. Three years as a fighter, four as mission collector round out Don's activity schedule.

JAMES J. O'NEILL

"J. O." can be justly proud of his consistently fine work in meriting honors all the way. An active Sodalist for two years and a member of the golf team, he'll long be remembered. He was also a rabid intramural athlete.

WILLIAM J. O'NEILL

Coming to Ignatius in his third year from Georgetown Prep, "Spike" was quick to make many friends at Ignatius. Another Heights commuter, Bill was an intramural baseball and basketball player.

ROLAND A. PETERS

This fleet-footed, hard-driving halfback was chosen to represent Ignatius in the pre-Charity game running contests. Rollie played frosh, jay vee and varsity football, also frosh and jay vee basketball. A four-year Sodalist, he gained second honors as a freshman, and three years later was elected vice-president of 4-C.

'47

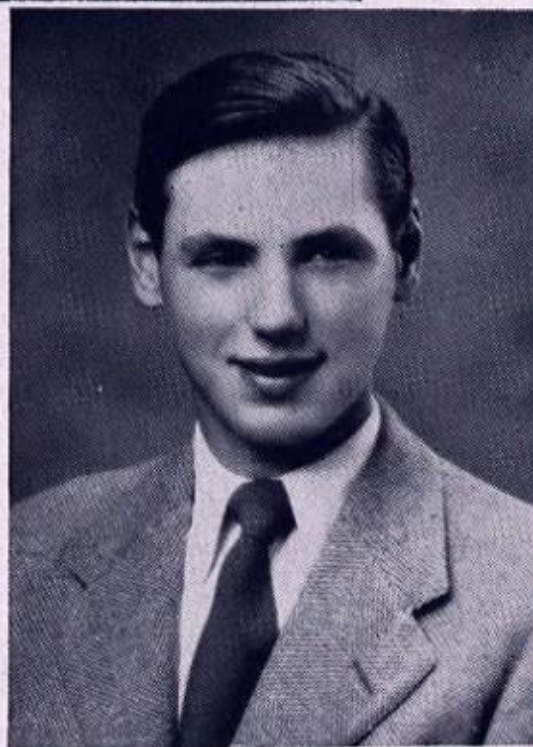

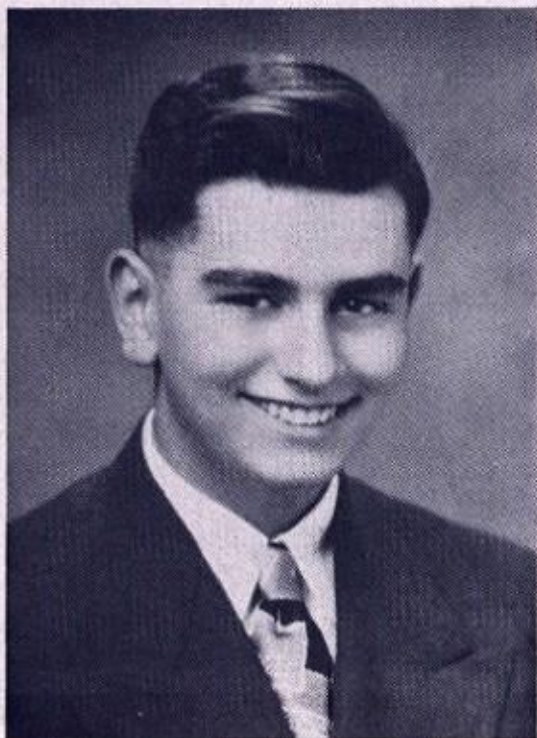

EDWARD S. PAWLOSKI

An energetic member of the Sodality, Ed attained first honors in first year, and second honors as a sophomore, junior, and senior. Rarely loud, yet seldom out of the picture, he will be long remembered by the class of 4-B for his basketball prowess in the intramurals and the C.Y.O.

JOSEPH H. PISKURA

After three years of tooting a mean sax, Joe's musical ability and good nature won him the position of band secretary in his senior year. A Sodalist, Magician, intramuralist, he was also a consistent honorman for four years.

JOSEPH F. PHILIPPS

Valuable asset to the baseball team, Fran was never at a loss with a bat in his hand; fast and clever base stealing made him a continual threat to our opponents. Though seldom heard in class, he bagged honors constantly. French held a special interest for him as did radio work.

GRADS

GEORGE R. POKORNY

As a scholar "Curly" gained first honors in freshman year, second honors in sophomore and senior years. George was a three-year Sodalist, two-year pugilist, one-year magician, and a four-year debater. A reporter on the Eye staff, he also worked on the Alumneye and the Ignatian, climaxing his activities in the Art Club and Sodality choir.

GEORGE F. QUINN

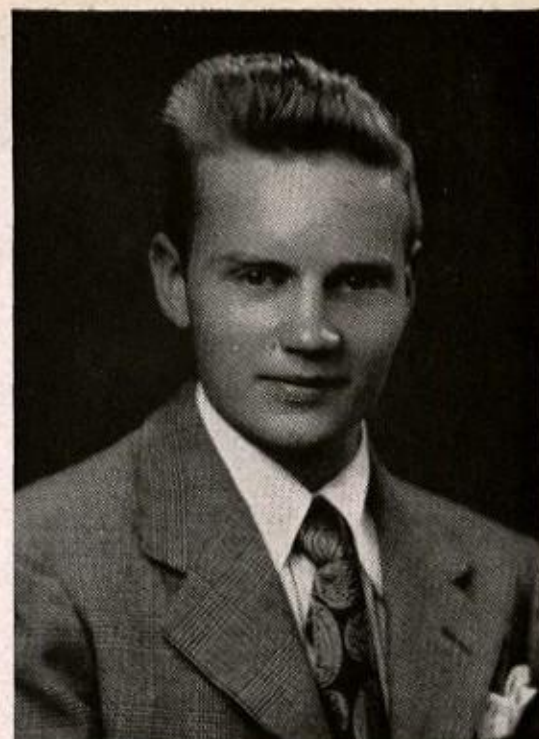

Notorious for his comical compositions, George was active in extra-curriculars, as shown by his three years in the Sodality, three years in the Magic Club, and his zest for tennis. He also belonged to the Camera Club and the Radio Club. French was "Curly's" subject. He led 4-G in this branch.

JOHN P. RICE

A Sodalist and Radio Club member, Jack was a pretty fair athlete. He entered the boxing tourney in his first year and played frosh football together with intramural basketball.

'47

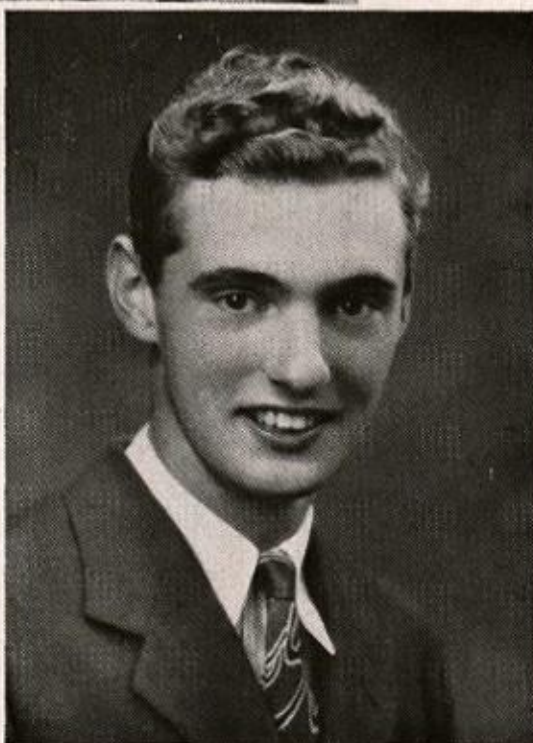

DENNIS S. REIDY

First-honor man and an active Sodalist, Denny boxed a little, talked Gaelic, and tried to start a beard-growing contest. That "active" before Sodalist is not there to make up wordage. Denny was a real force behind the men working for Mary.

EUGENE M. RILEY

Always a real threat on the gridiron and diamond, "Ski" merited three varsity letters in sports. A second-honor man, he played intramurals along with C. Y. O. basketball. A constant help to young boxers in the Blue and Gold tournament, a class officer in fourth year, Gene easily won himself many friends.

NORBERT A. RIHA

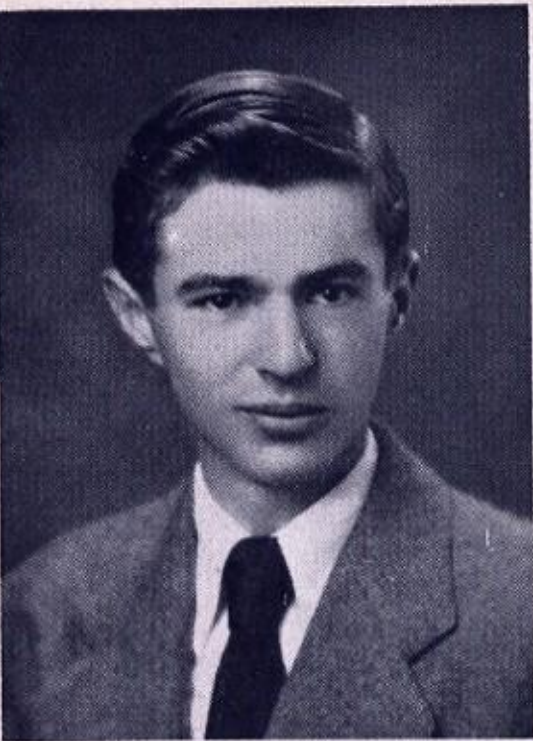

Starting the day with his pilgrimage from Parma, Norb notched first honors all four years and highest honors in third year. Another St. Charles' boy who made good at Ignatius!

THOMAS N. RILEY

A man full of vip, vim and vigor is Tom "T.N.T." Riley. A Sodalist, debater, and Radio Club member, he also served as Harlequin business man in his second year. Tom also played intramural baseball for four years.

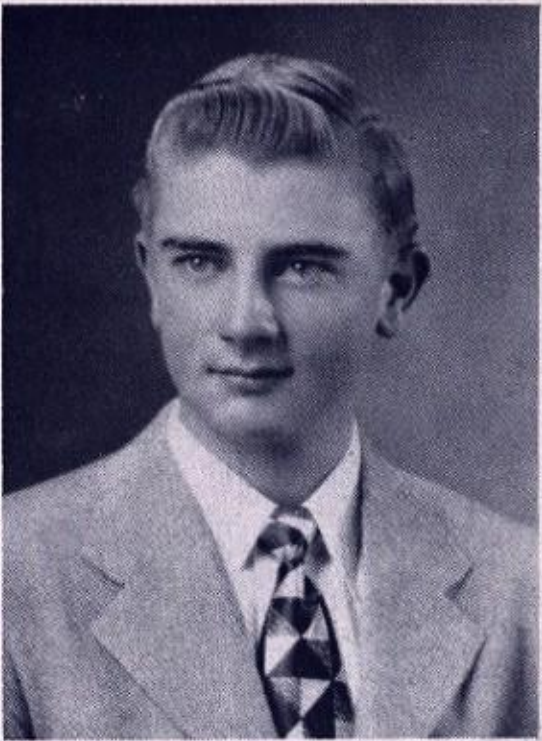

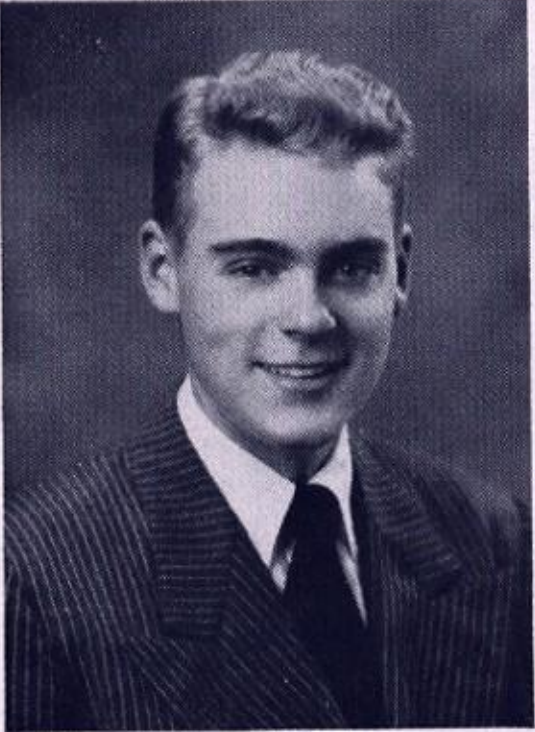

ROBERT L. RING

Unmistakably identified by his sauntering walk, he was admired for his speed in getting homework done before he even got home. "Spook" won second honors in second year, and was a member of the Sodality. A two-year pugilist, and a lightweight fighter, Bob won many a pal with his interested attitude.

'47

RAYMOND W. ROONEY

A good-tempered blond, Ray was a two-year Sodalist and showed his athletic talents in four years of intramural competition. A good head and a co-operative Ignatian, he has aspirations along the line of stage, screen, and radio work.

WILLIAM H. RODGERS

Bill was a quiet fellow who would rather sit back and enjoy life than be the life of the party. He took second honors his four years, not an easy job at Ignatius. A member of the Radio Club and quite a physicist, he also participated in intramurals.

JOHN D. RUSK

John was a Sodalist and Stamp Club member in freshman year. Later, he acquired interests in physics, aviation and the Radio Club. "Speed" also played intramural basketball. Short and of a quiet disposition, this lad has ambitions for a career in aeronautics.

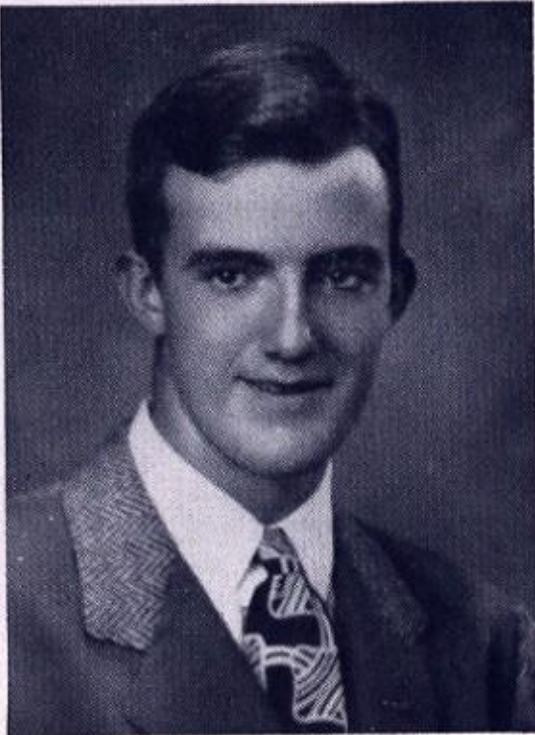

JOHN S. ROUCH

Second honorman, faithful member of the Sodality, band, and Radio Club, "Cutie" played jay vee football and all intramurals. No one will forget him as "Hubert" in the '47 Harlequin production of "Ramshackle Inn." John is also proud of his charter membership in the famed Schmarlequins.

JOHN F. SANDS

Jack received first honors in freshman and sophomore years, second honors in junior and senior years. John and Dick Blackwell were famous as a team and carried the St. Al's tradition throughout their four years at Ignatius. Intramurals plus Radio, Debating, and the Classics always kept John busy.

EDWARD W. SCHNELL

Ed's excellent record at Ignatius speaks for itself. A loyal Sodalist and first-rate Magician, he was also a member of the Eye staff, Radio Club, and choir. Ed distinguished himself as president of enterprising 4-B and earned second honors for four straight years.

ROBERT J. SCHAUER

Super salesman and ticket seller extraordinary, Bob Schauer will long be remembered for his almost unbelievable sales achievements during the raffle drive each year. Bob has been a four-year Sodalist and a four-year band member. Add up his activities and the total is an enterprising Ignatian with aspirations of becoming an M. D.

LOUIS E. SEVERS

Lou's activities include Sodality, intramural baseball, football, and boxing. His intrinsic worth has diffused itself and won for him an enviable reputation. He made the long trip from Berea to Ignatius every day for four years. Law and Chemistry are his favorites.

DONALD R. SELISKAR

First-honor man, Sodalist, Radio Club member and chorister, Don was also the organist for senior chapel services. He was a first-class library assistant for four years, U. B. correspondent as well as copy editor for The Eye.

FRANK E. SHANNON

Unpredictable Frank proved that anything can happen -- and usually does -- in his presence. A tricky basketeer, he played with the frosh squad. In senior year Frank proved himself quite handy with his fists in the Blue and Gold Tournament.

THOMAS F. SHEA

Tom, debating champ and president of the Senior Debaters, was a devoted Sodalist. A member of the band, the Radio and Classics Clubs, Tom earned first honors in second year, second honors thereafter. The Peace Boy boxed and participated in other intramurals throughout his stay at Ignatius.

PETER J. SHERIDAN

Pete's red hair and sense of humor will linger in our minds for a long time. "Red's" first love was baseball. He played for the Lighties and also intramural teams. Never at a loss in the classroom, "Red" proved himself a hard worker, gaining second honors for three years.

'47

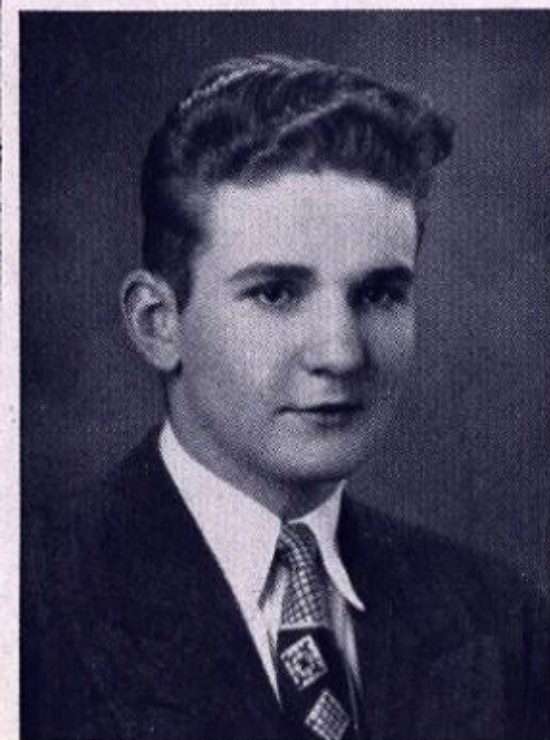

LAWRENCE G. SHEEHE

Larry, a four-year Sodalist, consistently gained second honors. A great sportsman, he battled out two years of first-rate tennis and with Ed Stefancin reached the semi-final playoffs for the State championship. "Curly," an all-around intramuralist, also played Lightie football.

LEO J. SIDERAS

Broad shoulders and quiet, sly wit characterize this loyal Ignatian. "Luke," as a football enthusiast, loved to heckle his pal Corrigan. He saw action on the gridiron himself, playing frosh and jay vees as a soph, Leo took second honors and belonged to the Sodality.

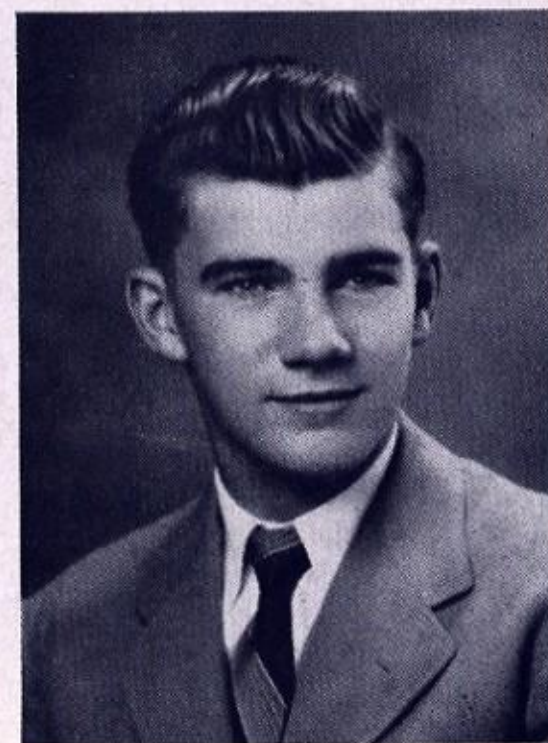

JOHN M. SHOEMAKER

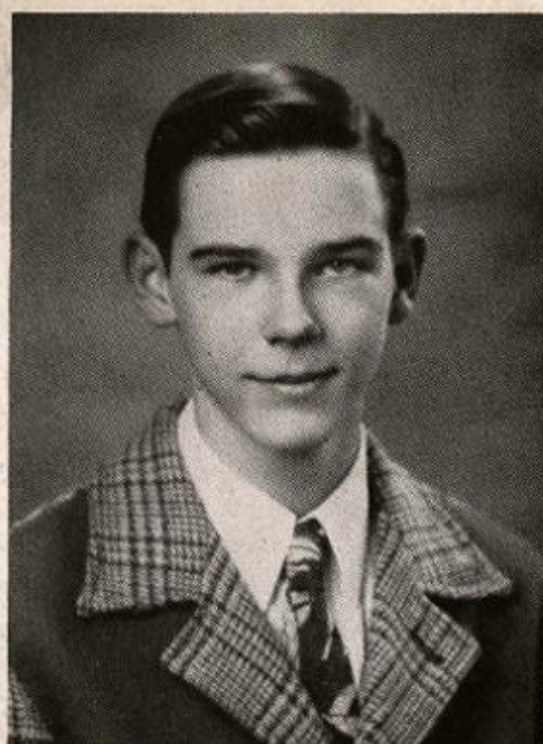

Battling John rocked the whole school back on its heels, to say nothing of his opponent, when he punched his way to a championship in the "46" version of the Blue and Gold Boxing Tourney. A two-year Sodalist and class officer, he sparked class interest with his almost unanswerable questions.

GRADS

PHILLIP W. SIEMER

Phil devoted most of his time to playing athletics and studying French. In his four-year tenure he merited two baseball monograms and one football letter. In between the two sports he dabbled in basketball his first three years. His deep love for Mary is evidenced by four years of faithful Sodality service.

ROBERT F. SLOAN

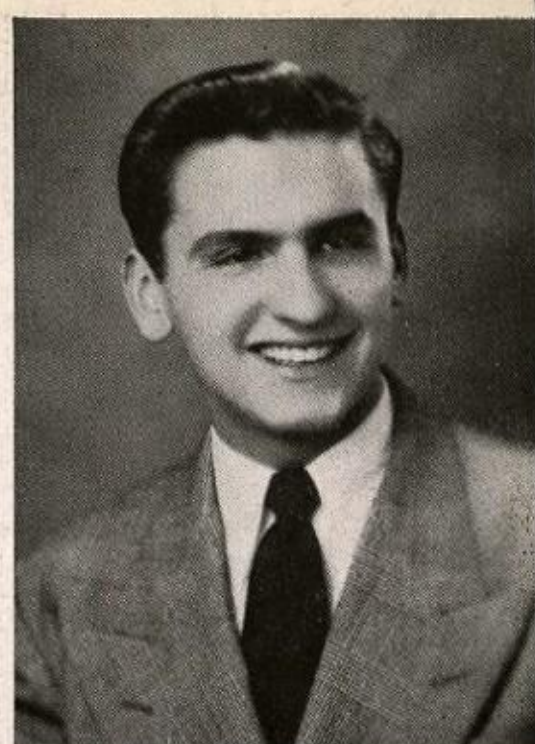

Bob, a quiet lad, ends his days at Ignatius with his sights set on the medical profession. In senior year, he joined the Sodality to become a true client of Mary.

JAMES F. SMITH

Jim comes from Avon, and he'll tell you all about that buzzing metropolis if given half a chance. A four-year Sodalist, the Avonite's favorite subject is French. With his pleasant personality, he made a host of friends at Ignatius and should win many more in years to come.

'4

NICHOLAS W. SMICKLAS

"Smick" never fails to have a good word for a pal. His smile is one of the things that helps to keep up the spirits of his classmates. He joined the Sodality in first year, the Radio Club in his last year. "Smick" hopes to be a chemist after college.

EDWARD J. SONNHALTER

Ed often tired his thumb, waving it between Ignatius and the Heights, but this didn't stop him from gaining second honors for three years. He was also a regular in all the intramural contests. Although he never had much to say, he had the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time.

WILFRED T. SMITH

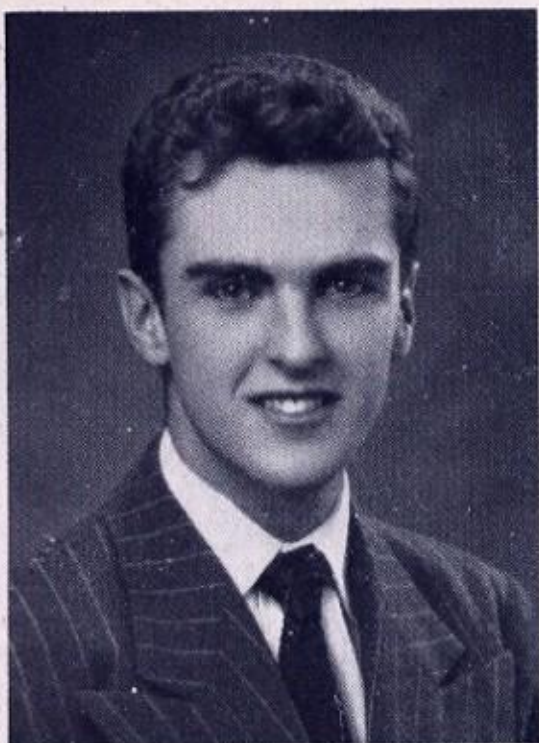

After three years of hard work and faithful service in the band, Wilf was elected president in his fourth year. Not satisfied with this, he devoted himself to Sodality and debating activities, which together with the Radio Club, intramurals, and Sodality Choir, completed a well-filled schedule.

DONALD P. STANTON

Red distributed his talents in many various activities. He played freshman and then two years of jay vee basketball, along with being a Sodalist and a two-term class officer. "Red" held down the position of drummer in the Ignatius band. The "47" Ignatian staff and the Magic Club round out his program of activities.

RICHARD M. SPITTLER

Left handed, likeable and loose-limbed, Dick deservedly won a position on the varsity football squad in his last two years. He played jay vee in second year. In the spring, Dick took to the links, gaining a slot on the golf team in third and fourth years.

EDWARD F. STEFANCIN

Twice a monogram winner, Ed was a demon on the tennis courts, but quiet in class. An honorman and intramural enthusiast, he also debated and showed great interest in the Radio Club. Favorite subject: Physics. Ed wants to be an engineer.

JOHN G. STEELE

In his first year Gil was elected vice-president of his class. In the field of sports, he was an outstanding member of the Lightie basketball, baseball and football squads. Gil also entered the boxing tourney his first three years, making it tough for all opponents. As an upperclassman he was class officer and varsity basketball man.

FRANCIS J. STENGER

Incomparable for his facility for getting down to the rock bottom of things, Frank leaves Ignatius with Law as his ambition. A lightweight football player and a Sodalist, diminutive Frankie displayed his boxing ability when he won a novice championship in frosh year.

RICHARD R. STRETAR

Quick and agile, Rich is a keen competitor in representing Ignatius on the tennis courts. Easily singled out by virtue of his lumbering ski shoes, Dick was a man for intramurals, as proved by his record of three years of basketball and four years of baseball. Like all true Ignatians he was a member of Our Lady's Sodality.

JERRY F. SWEENEY

If you've ever seen a head of flaming red hair towering above the rest down at Heck's, that was Jerry. A Sodalist, debater, and class officer in his junior and senior years, he also played Lightie basketball and jay vee football, and participated rigorously in all intramurals.

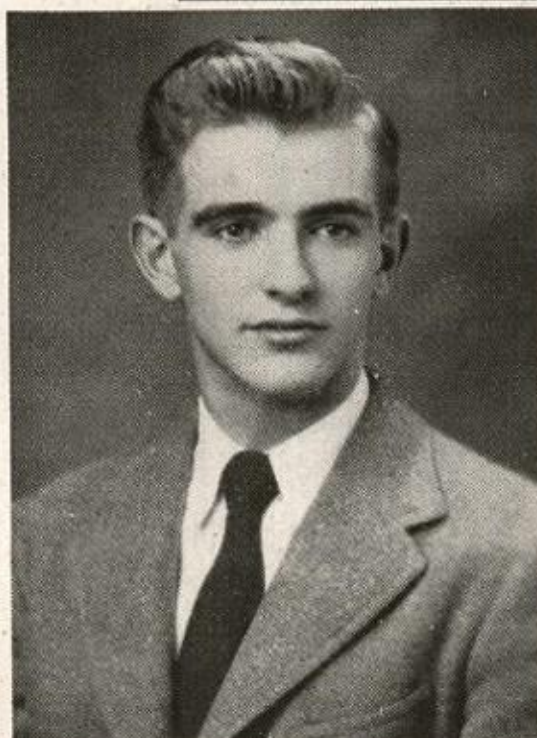

DANIEL C. SUSSEN

Dan was the 4D boy from the Heights who always found a way to come to school other than via the streetcar route. As class president he led his class in first year. Winner of a Harlequin key in his first two years, Dan also played all intramurals.

THEODORE E. TOPAS

Four-year first-honor man, Sodalist, Radio and Classics Club member, Ted also collected funds for Patna in freshman year. He was elected secretary of 3-A and participated in baseball and boxing intramurals, and in freshman year was co-captain of the Lighties.

WILLIAM J. TEKNIPP

Handsome Bill, with his blonde hair, dashing debonair look, constant friendliness, and generosity, has made his mark at Ignatius. The honor columns in The Eye always contained his name. Bill was also in the Chrysostom Club and played intramural contests.

"I have passed math. My ambition in life has been accomplished." R. C., a four-year Sodalist and first-year honorman also sang in our Sodality choir. He was a radioman, Harlequin and backbone of the famed Schmarlequins. He was also a member of the Classics Academy and a top-notch debater.

PATRICK T. TRESE

Besides being a brilliant and patient Eye editor, Pat was a devoted Sodalist, a valuable debater, an excellent student, an avid Intramural participator, an I. A. A. and Harlequin efficiency expert, a short-lived band member, a Magic Club protege, an efficient dance committeeman, and a spirited class leader. He also boxed.

'47

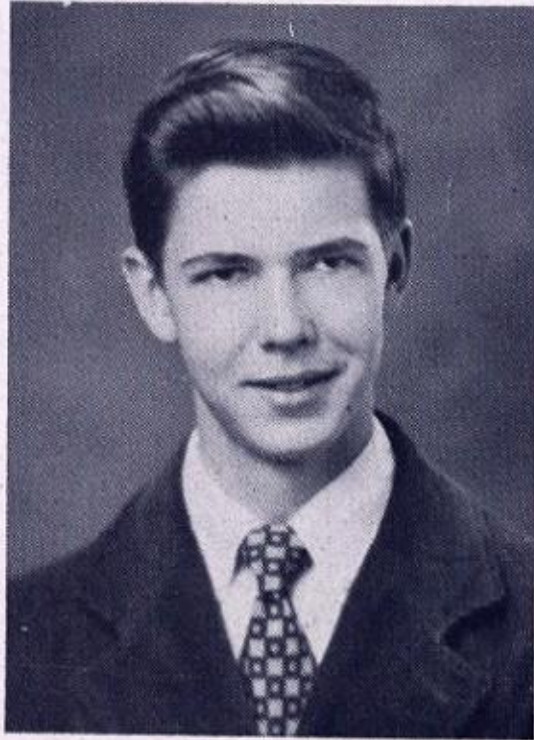

FRANCIS J. TINICS

A dry sense of humor and an original outlook on life characterize Frank, making him an extremely interesting personality. A two-year boxer and frosh footballer, Frank liked to tell us about his firefighting experiences in North Olmstead.

ROBERT F. THOMPSON

An active participant in the Sodality and Debating Club, Bob entered the boxing tourney in his third year to show his boxing prowess. Then proving he was a lover of fine music, he joined the choir in his third and fourth years.

WILLIAM H. VOLK

Serious and zealous in his studies, Bill was a second-honor man. Aircraft Industry is his life ambition, and after the initial steps he has taken in this field with his fine work in last year's flight course, we know Bill will be a success.

WILLIAM A. WALKER

Bill was the only member of the Class of '47 who owned an original Brooklyn accent. After winning honors in his freshman year, he finished with a four-year first-honor record. A Sodalist and Classics Club member, Bill also played commendable basketball and baseball for intramural teams.

G R A D S

LOUIS A. VISK

Winner of second honors in his freshman year and a loyal Sodalist, Louie was an energetic student. "Lou" was a member of the Magic and Chess Clubs. Keenly interested in sports, he worked as varsity baseball team manager for two years. He also boxed and participated in the intramural games.

ARTHUR L. WALTERS

Art was an ardent member of the Sodality for four years. "Curly," who merited a Harlequin key in his first year, entered the boxing tournament in his second year, gained first honors in his first year, and second honors thereafter.

JOHN G. WEISEND

John backed all extra curricular events with a vigor characteristic of him in all his undertakings. He became a well known figure at Ignatius for his three year's work as manager with the Wildcat football teams. Active participant in intramural basketball, John played many a bruising game on the hardwood.

'47

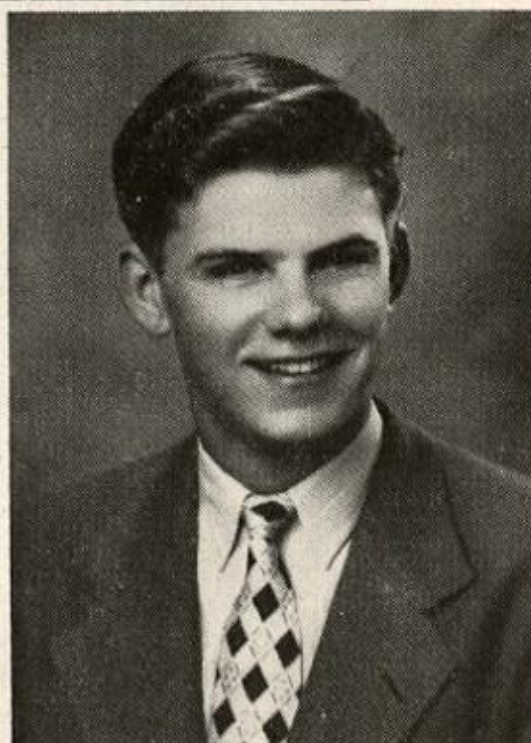

PAUL P. WEISBARTH

Paul was a small, good natured man with little to say but with plenty of Ignatius spirit. He gained second honors as a sophomore and junior, was a two-year Sodality member, and joined the Magic Club in his senior year.

JOHN V. WHITE

A loyal Ignatian with four solid years as a Sodalist, Jack applied himself so well to his studies that he won highest honors in third year and second honors as a freshman and sophomore. Rounding it all off to make a balanced diet of curricular and extra-curricular activities, he played intramural basketball and baseball. Jack also has four years to his credit as a band member.

JOHN J. WERBLAK

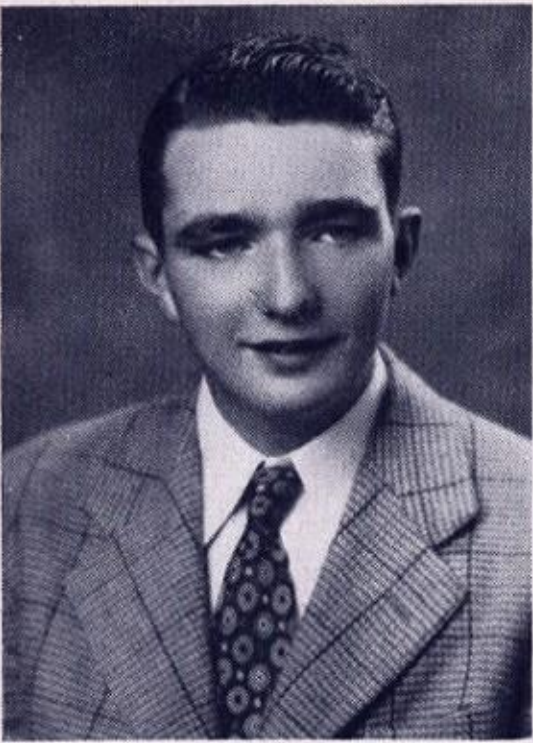

Healthy and handsome Jack saw service with the Frosh football squad, and the intramural basketball and baseball teams. Always sociable, he preserved an admirable and decorous reserve. John's favorite subjects are Radio and Law.

EDWARD L. WIEGAND

Gaining second honors in first year, Ed was a fellow who could really get the grades when he wanted to. Everybody's buddy, "Jumbo" proved that good things come in small packages. As speedy as a comet, the "petit monsieur" played lightweight baseball and basketball, and boxed in two tournaments.

ROBERT W. WIELAND

Easy-going Bob introduced his jaw to pugilistic art in frosh year, and played intramural baseball for two seasons. "Shorty", a fellow with a love for argument, plans to study law.

RALPH L. WILHELMS

For his delightfully unexpected statements in class and natural genius for Beethoven and Mozart, Ralph will long be remembered by his many friends at Ignatius. He earned second honors as a junior and was appointed mission collector in his second year.

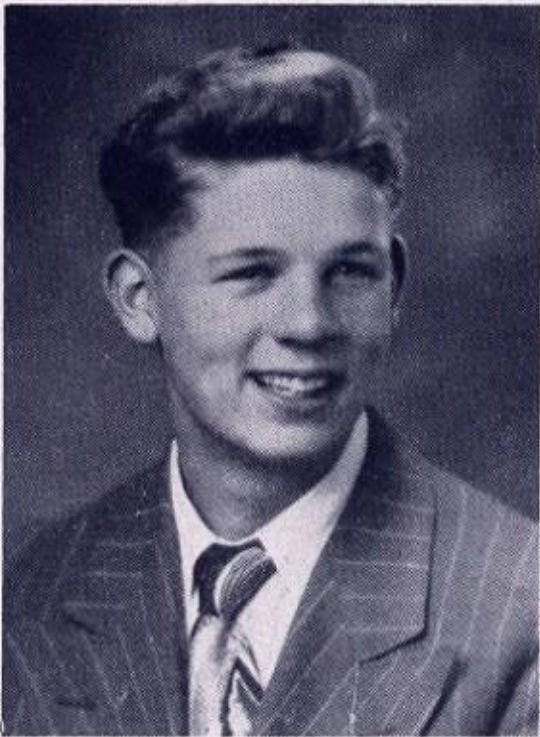

RAYMOND F. WIEMER

A great study hall fan, Ray used most of his free time trying to find a sure-fire method of trapping Kilroy. A two-year Magic Club member and Radio Club enthusiast, Ray joined the Sodality in his freshman year and also participated in intramurals.

CHARLES L. ZABOR

Chuck hopes some day to follow his father's business and be the best funeral director on the West Side. All of his spare time is spent gaining experience in his chosen field. In his senior year Chuck joined the Sodality.

JAMES J. YOUNG

A second-honor man for three years, Jim was a two-year Sodalist. Chosen as a class officer in second year, he participated in all intramurals. His favorite subject is French. Aim in life? To be a doctor.

WALTER J. ZEPP

Election as secretary of his class in third year was proof enough to show that everyone liked Waldo. This year he was dubbed the "Cisco Kid" because of his super side-burns. He completed his years at Ignatius by joining the Sodality.

GRADS

FRANCIS J. ZIDONIS

A four-year honor man from 4-A, Frank was a member in the Magic, Radio and Classics Clubs, topping it off with Harlequin stage crew assignments in senior and junior years. Frank also participated in intramurals. Lanky and quiet, Frank was just short of a genius in Greek.

CLUBS

Senior Sodality

Reidy, Acker, Father Berdan, S. J., Schoeck, and Brady master-minded the Sodality.

Of all the activities and projects, the Sodality of Our Lady ranks as the most important at St. Ignatius. By joining the Sodality, Ignatians become better friends of Christ through devotion to His Mother Mary. This year the Sodality had a full slate under the direction of the newly appointed moderator, Father W. L. Berdan, S. J. Chief project of the Sodality was a number of closed retreats at St. Stanislaus Tertiaship. Sodalists also sponsored their annual Christmas Dance, Queens Work and the Universe Bulletin subscription drives, Knights Vigils and other spiritual and social events.

Ronnie Schoeck and Tom Shea tabulate the entries in the mental prayer contest sponsored by the Senior Sodality.

Sophomore Sodality

Sophomore Sodality of St. Ignatius held weekly meetings under the supervision of Father A. F. Menchen, S. J. The spiritual side of the Sodality is stressed for the sophomores in the form of mental prayer, recitation of the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin, devotions, and sermons. Mostly because of the active interest of the sophomore Sodalists, the Sodality Choir became a reality.

Freshman Sodality

This year marked the entry of sixty new members into the Freshman Sodality. They were received by Father W. H. Berdan, S. J., April 27, at St. Mary's Church.

Guided by Father J. J. O'Brien, S. J., the freshmen held weekly meetings. Officers were: Patrick McDonnell, prefect; John Gill, vice-prefect; Robert Wischmeyer, secretary, and James Quinn, treasurer.

Senior Debaters

Rain or shine, sleet or snow, this hard-working group of forty orators meet faithfully every Tuesday morning at eight o'clock. Guided by Mr. J. J. Miday, S. J., the debaters strove to become masters in public speaking. Officers were Tom Shea, president; Tom Acker, vice-president; John Mott, secretary.

This year's national topic was Resolved: That the federal government should provide a system of complete medical care available to all citizens at public expense.

Mr. Miday (above), gives the debaters a few tips. Left: You've got a point there, Howard.

Early in the first semester the debaters set out to master the national topic in order to prepare themselves for the second annual Bourdaloue Tournament scheduled for the second semester. At Cathedral Latin's debate tournament, in which thirty schools participated, the eight men representing Ignatius won six debates.

Right: Voting for the best speaker.

Chrysostom Club

"That was a fine rebuttal."

"Gentlemen . . ."

So many students desired to develop themselves through public speaking that it became necessary to establish a separate group of sophomore debaters, called the Chrysostom Club in honor of the Greek orator, St. John Chrysostom. Guiding the club were R. McNally, president; R. Meissner, vice-president; D. Faulhaber, secretary, and Mr. P. S. Kehres, S. J., moderator.

Freshman Debaters

From the very first the entire club displayed such a spirit of enthusiasm that its year has been a marked success. Elected early in the year, the officers were: D. O'Brien, W. Adler, D. McGarvey, and P. McDonnell.

Under the guidance of Mr. L. J. McKenna, S. J., the three primary objectives of the organization were carried out. To instruct all members in the fundamentals of public speaking, to give each a chance to develop his mind in logical thinking-habits, and to encourage each member to better his persuasive ability were the objectives of this club.

Magic Club

St. Ignatius Magic Club is one of the most popular and energetic organizations in the school. Purpose of the Magic Club is to school its members in calmness and confidence as sleight-of-hand artists. Father J. J. Gillespie, S. J., moderator of this spirited group, urges members to perform before their own skilled group. Each week Father Gillespie demonstrates two or three new tricks, urging his proteges to add them to their collection.

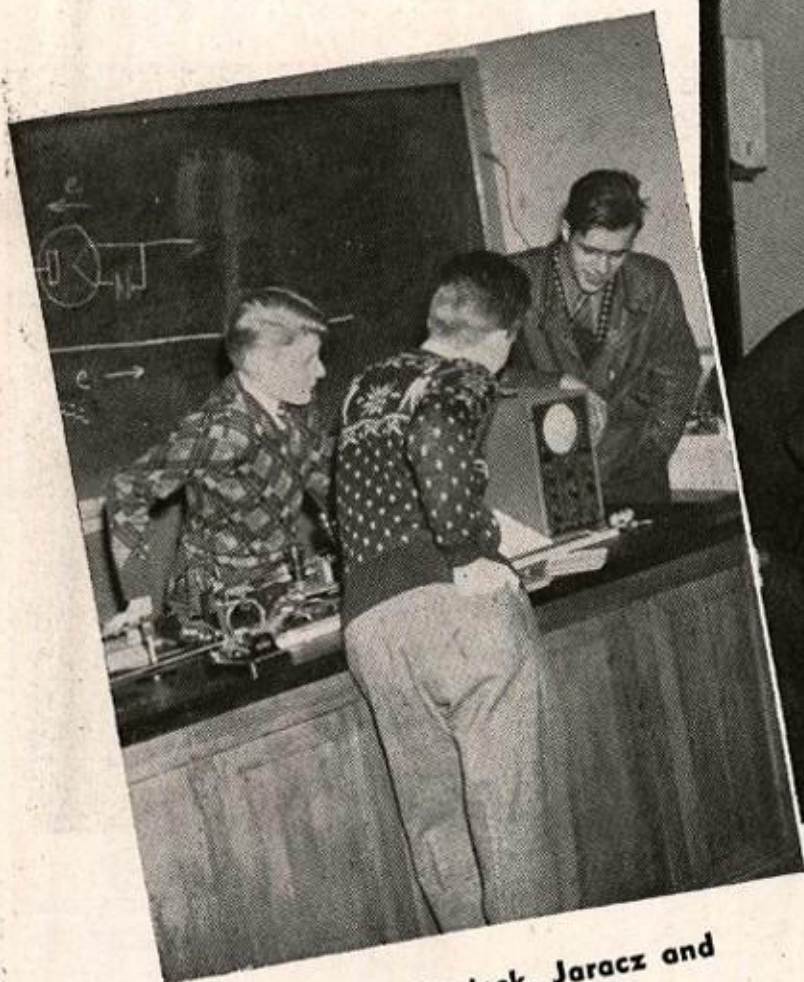

Grdina (above), shows off for senior members Gavin, Hogan, Hagerty, Keelan, and Bogus. Left: "Now there's nothing up my sleeve except eight rabbits, an American flag, a boiler plant, and an arm."

Members pledge not to reveal any of the tricks which they might learn while in the club, for the disclosure of such information destroys the entertainment value of any trick. President Jim Hagerty heads the list of magicians who gave performances throughout the city during the past year.

"I know you boys are dying for a smoke, but the show must go on."

Radio Club

Hones, Kmieck, Jaracz and an oscillograph.

Grapentien, Blair, Gavin, and Good find out what makes a radio tick, or buzz, or whistle.

Every Thursday morning during the past year, a group of interested seniors came to school an hour earlier to attend Radio Club meetings. Father J. W. Stejskal, S. J., started the club for the purpose of giving the seniors a practical knowledge of radio. After establishing a firm hold by learning the theory governing the crystal type of receiver, the members proceeded to the study of simple battery sets, battery eliminators, and radio frequency sets. The knowledge gained in the Radio Club prepares these seniors for further studies in radar, television, electronics, or one of the other sciences so important to the world of today and tomorrow.

In the bird-cage.

Besides handling tickets for football and basketball games, the Ignatius Athletic Association handled the patrons, ads, and subscriptions for The Ignatian; dance bids; sales-tax stamp drive; boxing tournament and Harlequin tickets. In addition to all this, the I.A.A. boys had to keep the records and balance the accounts for all projects. This keeps the members laboring endlessly behind the scenes of their office. Moderator Mr. K. J. Noetzel, S. J., president Jim FitzGerald, and vice-president George Hammer had a busy, successful year in their small office on the first floor.

The fundamentals of the art of photography are made available to all Ignatians through the Camera Club. Members are taught the different phases of photography and the "know how" of taking pictures by their moderator, Father S. L. Schnieders, S. J. During the school year Father Schnieders and his loyal enthusiasts took hundreds of pictures around the school. But the most remarkable accomplishment of the Camera Club is that all the sports and activity pictures which appear in the annual were taken by the skilled members of this organization.

In Action

Due to the cooperation of the student body, the band's annual tax stamp drive was a huge success. The money obtained from the sale of these stamps was used to purchase new instruments and uniforms for band members.

Highlight of the year was the third annual massed band concert held at Public Music Hall, May 11, featuring the combined music of the St. Joseph, Holy Name, Benedictine, and St. Ignatius bands.

Getting set for half time . . .

"Hup . . . two . . ."

Long hours of practice the year round, capable direction and the will to work for Ignatius have made this year's band one of the largest and snappiest in the city of Cleveland. Under the guidance of Mr. Jack T. Hearn, director, and Mr. E. F. Helmick, S. J., moderator, the organization has reached a height which leaves little to be desired. This year's officers were Wilfred Smith, president; Joseph Piskura, secretary; John Hydock, treasurer, and John White, sergeant-at-arms.

The Tri-School Band Contest serenaded Cleveland, May 11.

Made up of varsity letter winners at Ignatius, the Monogram Club continued its grand old traditions this year. Guided by Mr. D. J. Bowman, S. J., the organization launched the annual Blue and Gold Boxing Tourney. Members busied themselves during the preliminaries by taping the hands of the boxers, acting as seconds, and refereeing and judging bouts. Because of their efforts the eleventh annual tourney was a thumping success. Mike Kelly and Ralph Jamieson, boxing commissioners, and Bill Crock, Ronnie Schoeck, Jim Dilling, Gene Riley, Frank Bitzan and Rollie Peters were the boys who worked long and hard on the tournament.

Mr. Birney, S. J., shows the boys a real bargain.

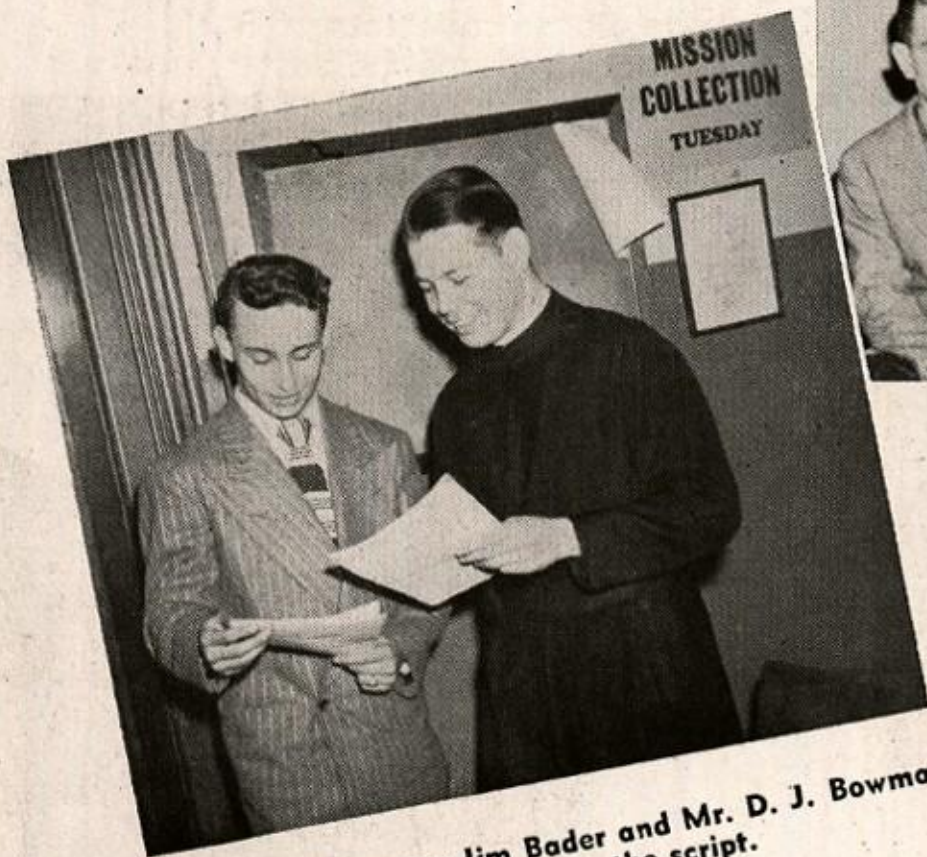

The stamp collectors of St. Ignatius are perhaps the best geography students in the school. Philately is not merely a love of gathering stamps, but entails an intellectual curiosity about strange places and a natural love of rare things.

Such a group of Ignatians comprise the Stamp Club, which, guided by Mr. J. D. Birney, S. J., meets every Wednesday morning to discuss, trade, and buy stamps. Proceeds from the stamps sold go to the Jesuit Mission in Patna.

The Harlequins take their last curtain call and "Ramshackle Inn" is left for posterity.

"Oh, a body!"

Stage crew's cues.

On March 14, 15, and 16, the Harlequin production of 1947 was presented in the Little Theatre of the Public Auditorium. The play was "Ramshackle Inn," a three-act comedy by George Batson. Mr. D. J. Bowman, S. J., acted as moderator, assisted by Mr. R. J. Feuerstein, S. J., and student director Jim Bader. John Rouch as Hubert Pryde, and Mike Kelly as Mr. Patton were starred. The cast also featured Jim Tobin, Jerry Barry, Dick Thompson, Dave Baugh, Bill Tobbe, Tom Ankenbrandt, Ray Jaracz, Bob Riley, Dick Gaeckle, Bob Bogus, Gil Corrigan and Jack Diskin.

Ignatian Staff

With many hours of diligent planning, writing and research, the Ignatian staff endeavored to chronicle the year's activities for 1947. Guided by Mr. M. T. Carron, S. J., the staff consisted of Tom Acker, editor-in-chief, Pat Trese and Dick McKeon, assistant editors, and Jim Bader, George Pokorny, Roger Falge, Bob Dambach, Jim Landers, Bob Jasany, and John Loftus, associate editors. Bob Riley and Bernie McLaughlin took charge of all financial and advertising problems. Bob Cihlar was the staff typist.

Eye Staff

In its twentieth-anniversary year The Eye won an All-American rating, the highest award given by the National Scholastic Press Association, and an All-Catholic rating from the National Catholic Press Association. The paper, moderated by Mr. M. T. Carron, S. J., was edited by Pat Trese. Other editors were Dick McKeon, managing editor, and Joe McGarry and Bob Dambach, news editor and associate news editor respectively. At the sports helm there was Jim Bader. Tom Acker handled the editorials, Dick McKeon took the pictures, Don Seliskar was U. B. correspondent, and Hank Shea took care of the exchanges.

Mission Collectors

The mission collectors and the student body of St. Ignatius High School deserve credit for a job well done. This year, through their generosity and zeal to spread Christ's work, the students contributed over $3500 to Patna and other missions. Some classes held individual dances and raffles, whose profits helped make this year's total the highest in the history of Ignatius.

Special credit is due Father S. A. Vana, S. J., who had charge of the returns, and to the class representatives, faithful collectors of their class donations every week.

Classics Club

"So Oedipus rips out his eyes . . ."

Heh, heh. . . .

This society began in the second semester of this year, through the efforts of Mr. D. J. Bowman, S. J., and a group of enthusiastic supporters. Its purpose is to read and discuss the teachings of the great philosophers and writers who lived before Christ.

Individual members read many of the works of Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides and touched upon the writings of Plato and Aristotle. At the weekly meeting the classicists discussed the selection for the week in an open forum discussion.

Chess Club

Now in its second year, the Chess Club was organized mainly for the enjoyment of all its members. Directed by Mr. J. R. Habes, S. J., the players meet every week to develop new plays and solve the many intriguing problems of the game. Members may play any afternoon in the school library.

The club is a member of the Scholastic Chess League of Cleveland and participates in the league's yearly tournament.

All-Senate Bill Crock

Matey Bader takes a little jaunt against West Tech as friend and foe alike assume peculiar positions. West Tech triumphed, 12-7.

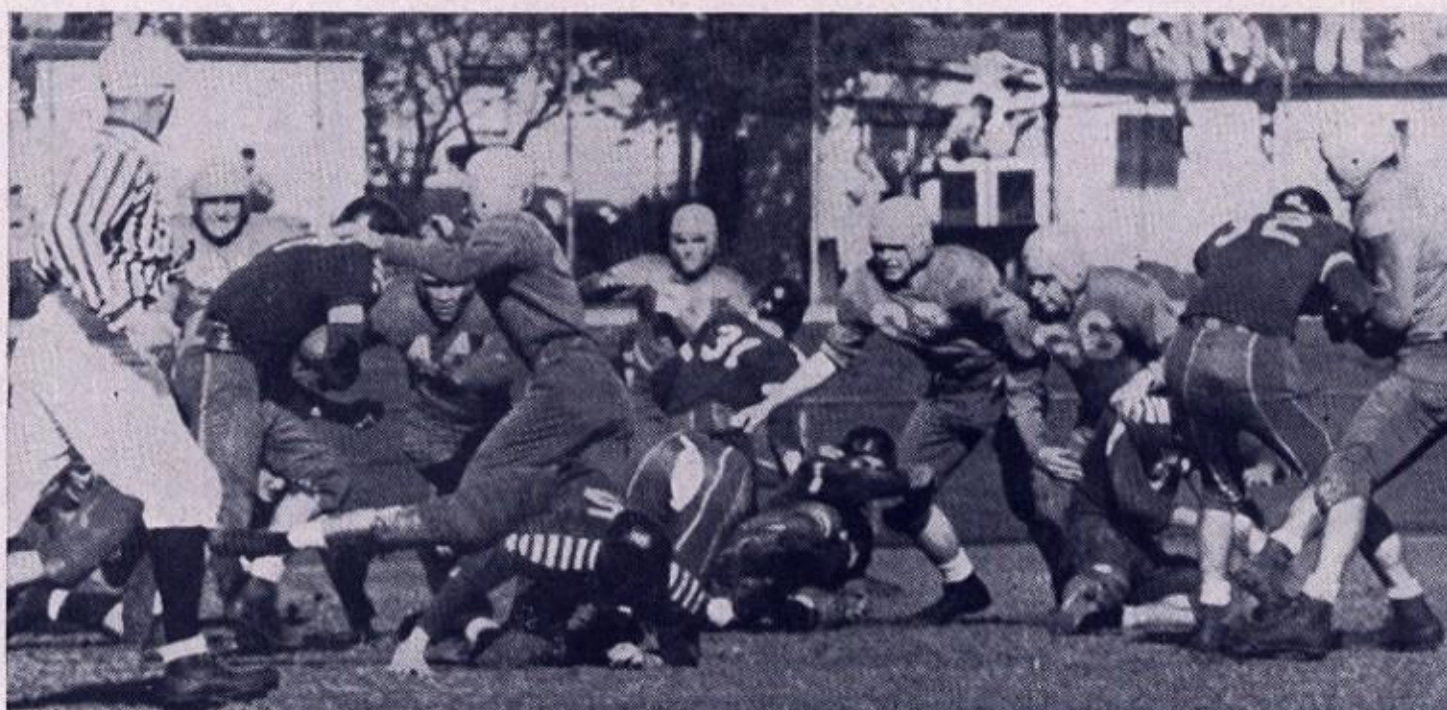

Rollie runs through South. 3-0, remember?

Crushed by Latin's Lions in their season's opener, the 1946 Wildcat football eleven never fully recovered as they suffered one of the most disastrous seasons in recent years. Winning only one game, the team was hampered mostly by lack of experience and injuries.

With the 45-to-0 massacre at the hands of Latin behind them, the Cats met Marshall in their Senate opener and emerged victorious, 14-7. But from then on it was rough going with nothing but defeat. Ignatius salvaged some prestige by placing two men on the Plain Dealer All-Senate team. Bill Crock snared first choice at guard and Ronnie Schoeck merited honorable mention at center.

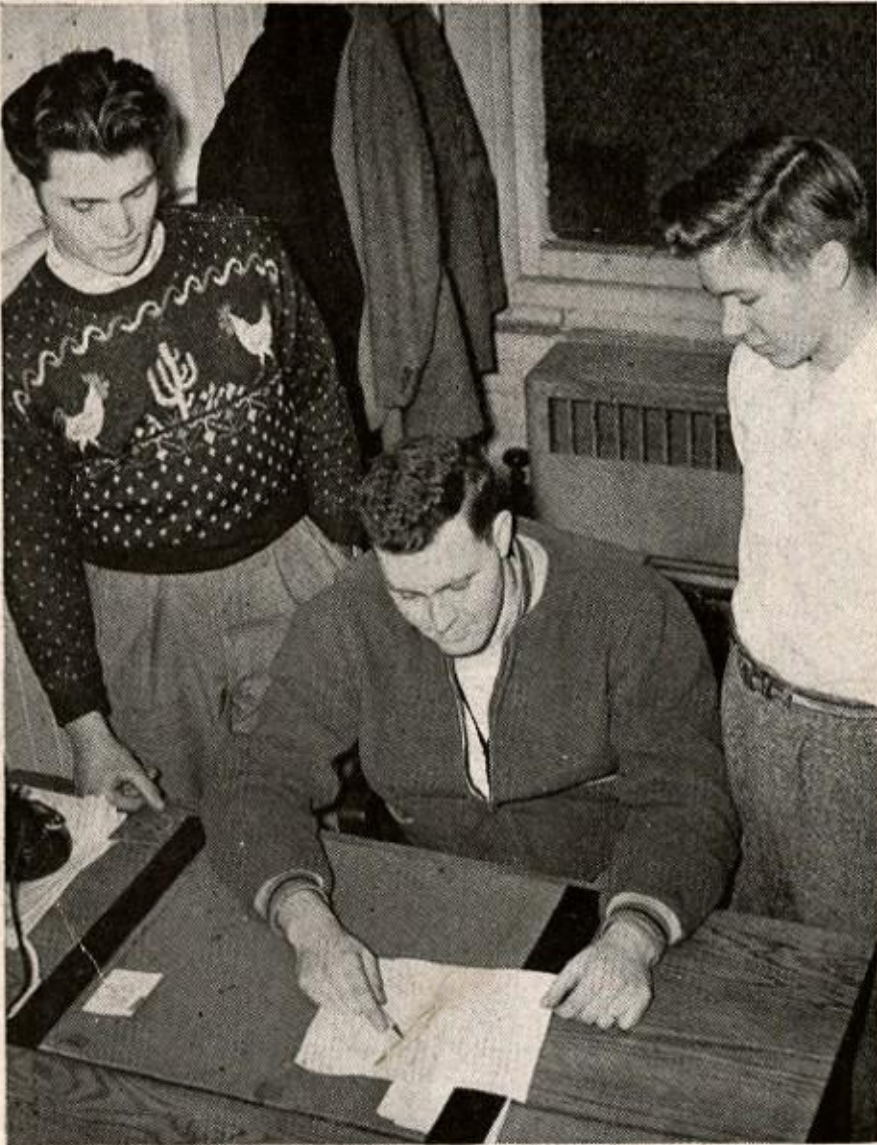

Mike Fornaro takes off around Marshall's end behind Joe Danko's interference. We won, 14-7.

A Lincoln back all set to be dumped by half the Wildcat team. The Presidents took this one, 32-7.

J. V. Football

Mr. Heglaw gives Olesik and Blackburn a little skull practice.

After losing four out of their first five games, the scrappy junior varsity football squad snapped out of their lethargy by dropping West Tech's jay vees from the ranks of the unbeaten, and went on to capture four straight victories. They finished the season with an even five conquests and five defeats under new Coach E. S. Heglaw.

Always with the view of building for the future, the jay vees produced some fine material for next year's squad. Although their point total equaled exactly one-half that of their opponents, most of the other teams' points were scored before the squad "caught fire."

Frosh Football

Although their won-lost record was far from sensational, the freshman football team has many prospects for future varsity material. They are well-versed in the fundamentals of the game, after the excellent coaching of Messrs. R. A. Prickril, S. J., and D. J. Bowman, S. J.

The frosh garnered only two victories, compared with four close losses and a tie. Victorious over Lincoln and Rhodes, they held their arch-rivals from Latin to a 6-6 tie.

Larry Dolan, a good prospect for the Cats, sparked the team. Other outstanding players were Kaczur, Hoke, Novak, Pollak, and Vana.

"Now the line's got to black hard on this one . . ."

Coach W. H. Scopel.

Boasting perhaps the greatest player in the city, as well as a hustling crew of sharpshooters, the Wildcats clinched a second-place West Senate tie by drubbing South's previously unbeaten city champions, 56-46. All-scholastic Jim Dilling paced the Cat attack with a sparkling 31-point exhibition of shooting wizardry.

Severely hampered by sickness, Ignatius lost to Benedictine, 59-45, in the runner-up playoffs, to bring their season's record to seven victories and seven defeats.

The brilliance of Dilling overshadowed the lesser feats of such stalwarts as Jim Dugan, Tom Blackburn and Skip Weithman. Slim Jim, one of the best players seen in these parts for a long time, accumulated the staggering season total of 278 points.

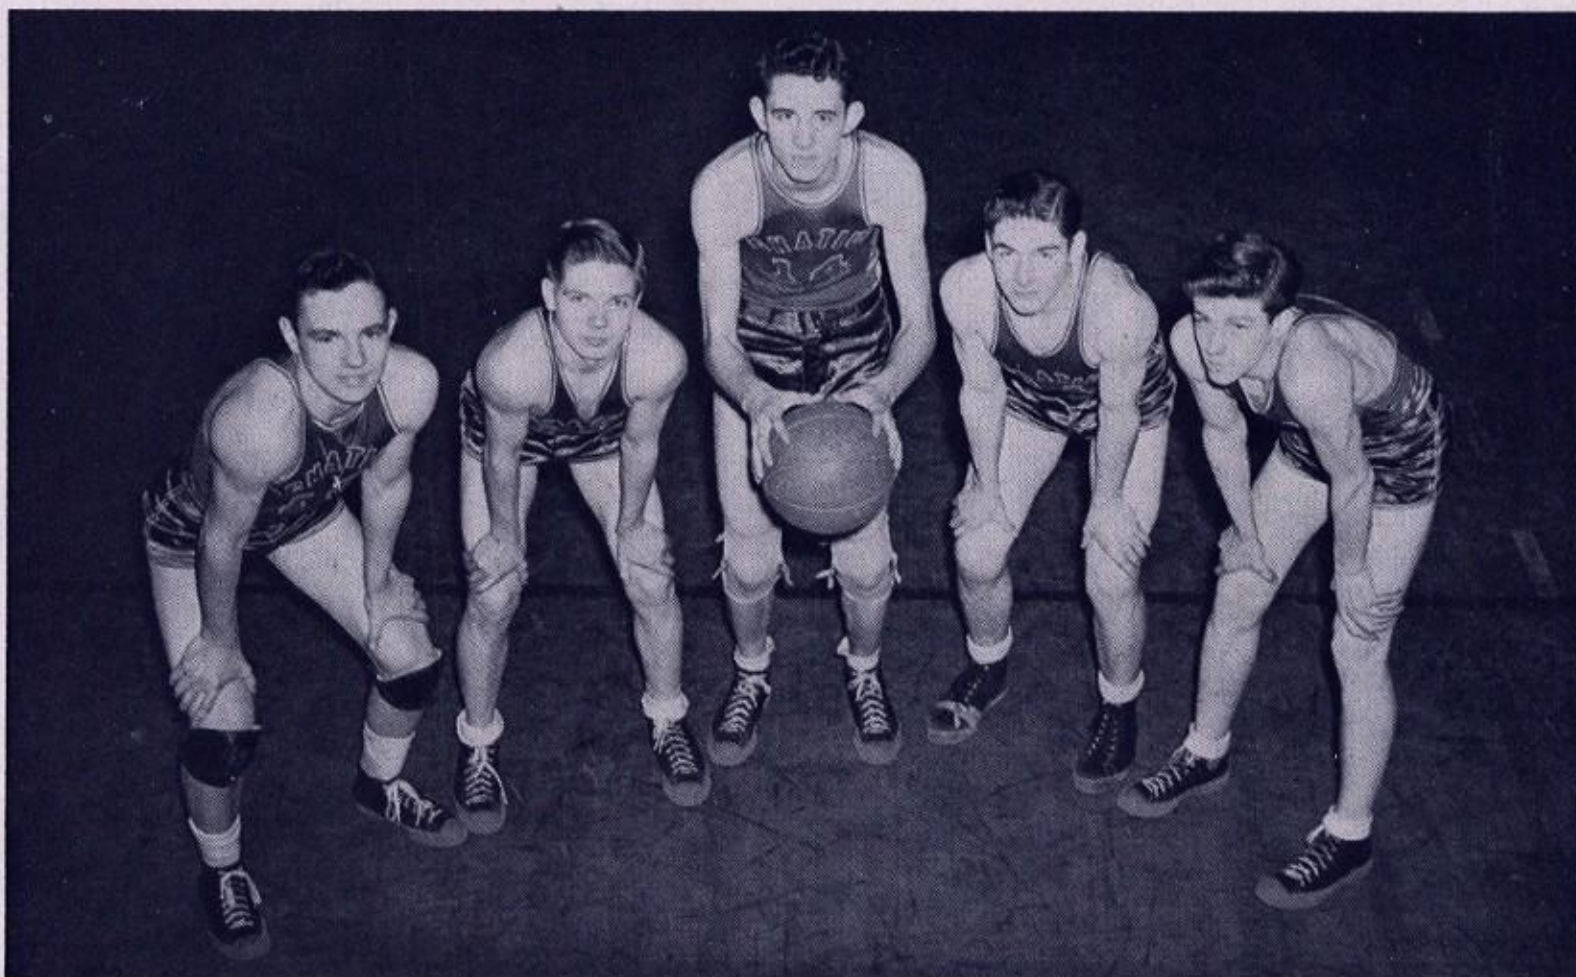

Overtime overture. John Marshall Lawyers inspired by their cool captain, Jim Janosek, eked out a close decision over the Wildcats, 32-31.

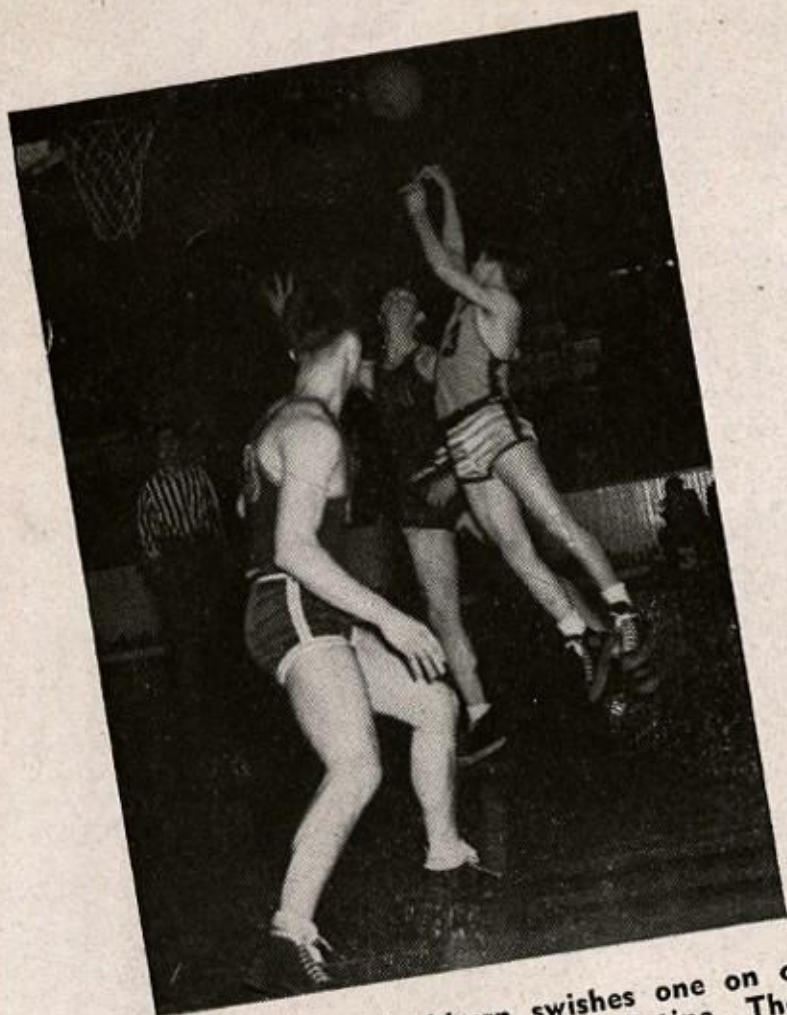

Pulling the upset of the year, the Dillingers knocked West Tech out of the running in the West Senate, as the Carpenters dropped their first game in two years.

With their enthusiastic new coach, Mr. E. S. Heglaw, at the helm, the Jay Vee basketekers romped to eight victories in thirteen starts, to compile a better than average season record.

For the most part the team employed a tight man-for-man defense and a fast-breaking offense that paid real dividends toward the end of the season.

The jay vees capped their season with decisive triumphs over South and West. Of the five games lost, two were one-point decisions that could easily have come out on the better side of the scoring column.

Frosh Basketball

In racking up a respectable .600 winning percentage, the promising frosh basketeurs exhibited an effective man-for-man defense. Offensively the team displayed good ball-handling, but failed to demonstrate as good marksmanship, more from lack of shooting practice than for any other reason.

In five encounters they held their foes to less than twenty points, their fighting spirit being their most predominant and valuable asset.

Credit for the successful season goes to lettermen R. O'Malley, Don Hoke, C. Gallagher, Ed Kaczur, Jim Curran, Joe Curran, J. Hopkins, D. Florian, F. Lalonde, and J. McDonnell.

Though crippled by the loss of hurler Ronnie Schoeck, the baseball team rocketed to six straight victories and the league lead in the West Senate. The new coach, Mr. E. S. Heglaw, welded a green team into a hustling nine that made its own breaks.

 this year's returning lettermen.

With razor-edge pitching contributed by Jim Dilling and Joe Horan, the Cats were strong defensively. Veteran infielders Bernie McLaughlin and Jim Bader teamed with the rookie keystone combination of Terry Richardson and Jim Young to furnish excellent support. Gil Steele, Jack McCaffrey, and Dick Rodgers formed a heavy-clubbing outfield.

Tennis

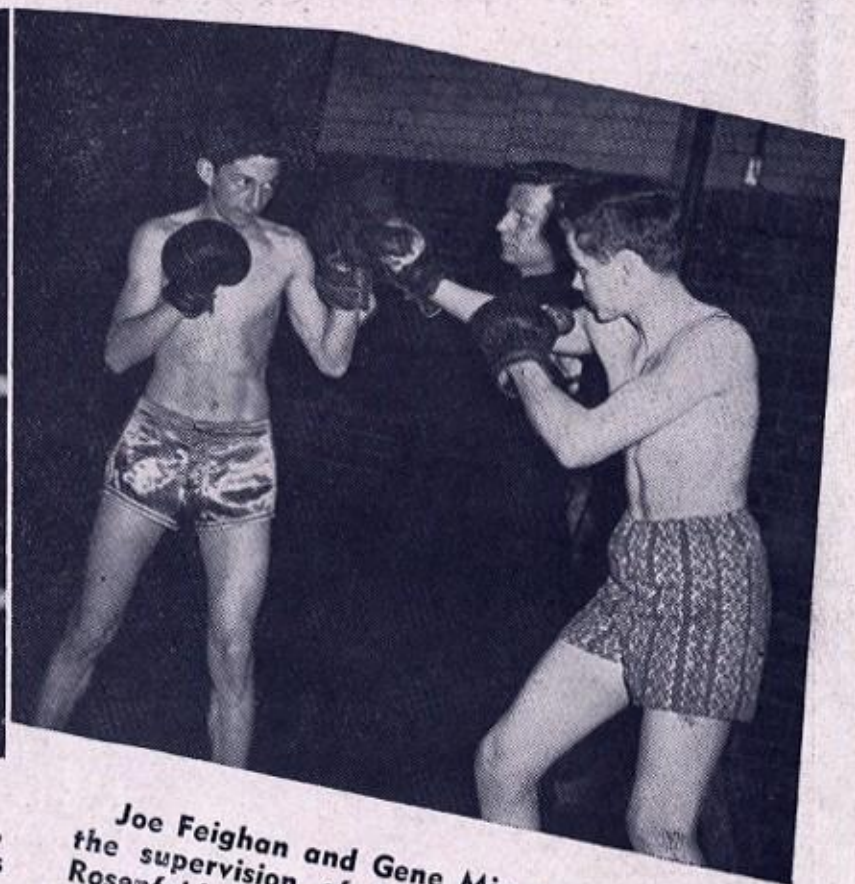

With a talented nucleus around which to mold a team, our tennis prospects looked bright indeed as a host of candidates turned out April 7, for the first practice session at Bulkley Courts.

Larry Sheehe and Ed Stefancin, a pair of netmen who won a place in the State finals last year will form a duo that will hold its own with any in the city. Mr. L. J. Cross, S. J., scholastic coach, can also rely on such stalwarts as Jim Tobin, Jim DeChant, Bob Stefancin, Dick Stretar, Tom Burdenski, Tom Maguire, Jim Malloy, Joe Fackelman, Bob Schumacher, and Ray Rooney.

With over 200 aspiring pugilists narrowed down to 36 battlers, the finals of the tenth annual Blue and Gold Boxing Tournament were held April 18 in the gym.

Best-boxer trophy was awarded to Tom Corbett for sportsmanship and all-around ability. Other trophy winners in the open division, besides Corbett, were Dick Somsak, Pat Keefe, John Hayes, Dave Harley, Jerry Barry, Jack Crook, Jerry Sweeney, and Hank Compernelle.

In the novice division the following took the laurels: Dave McGarvey, Pat Jeffries, Tom Auble, Jack Brandabur, Jim Welsh, Eddie Kaczur, Chuck Gallagher, Bill Sharkin, and Norm Fox.

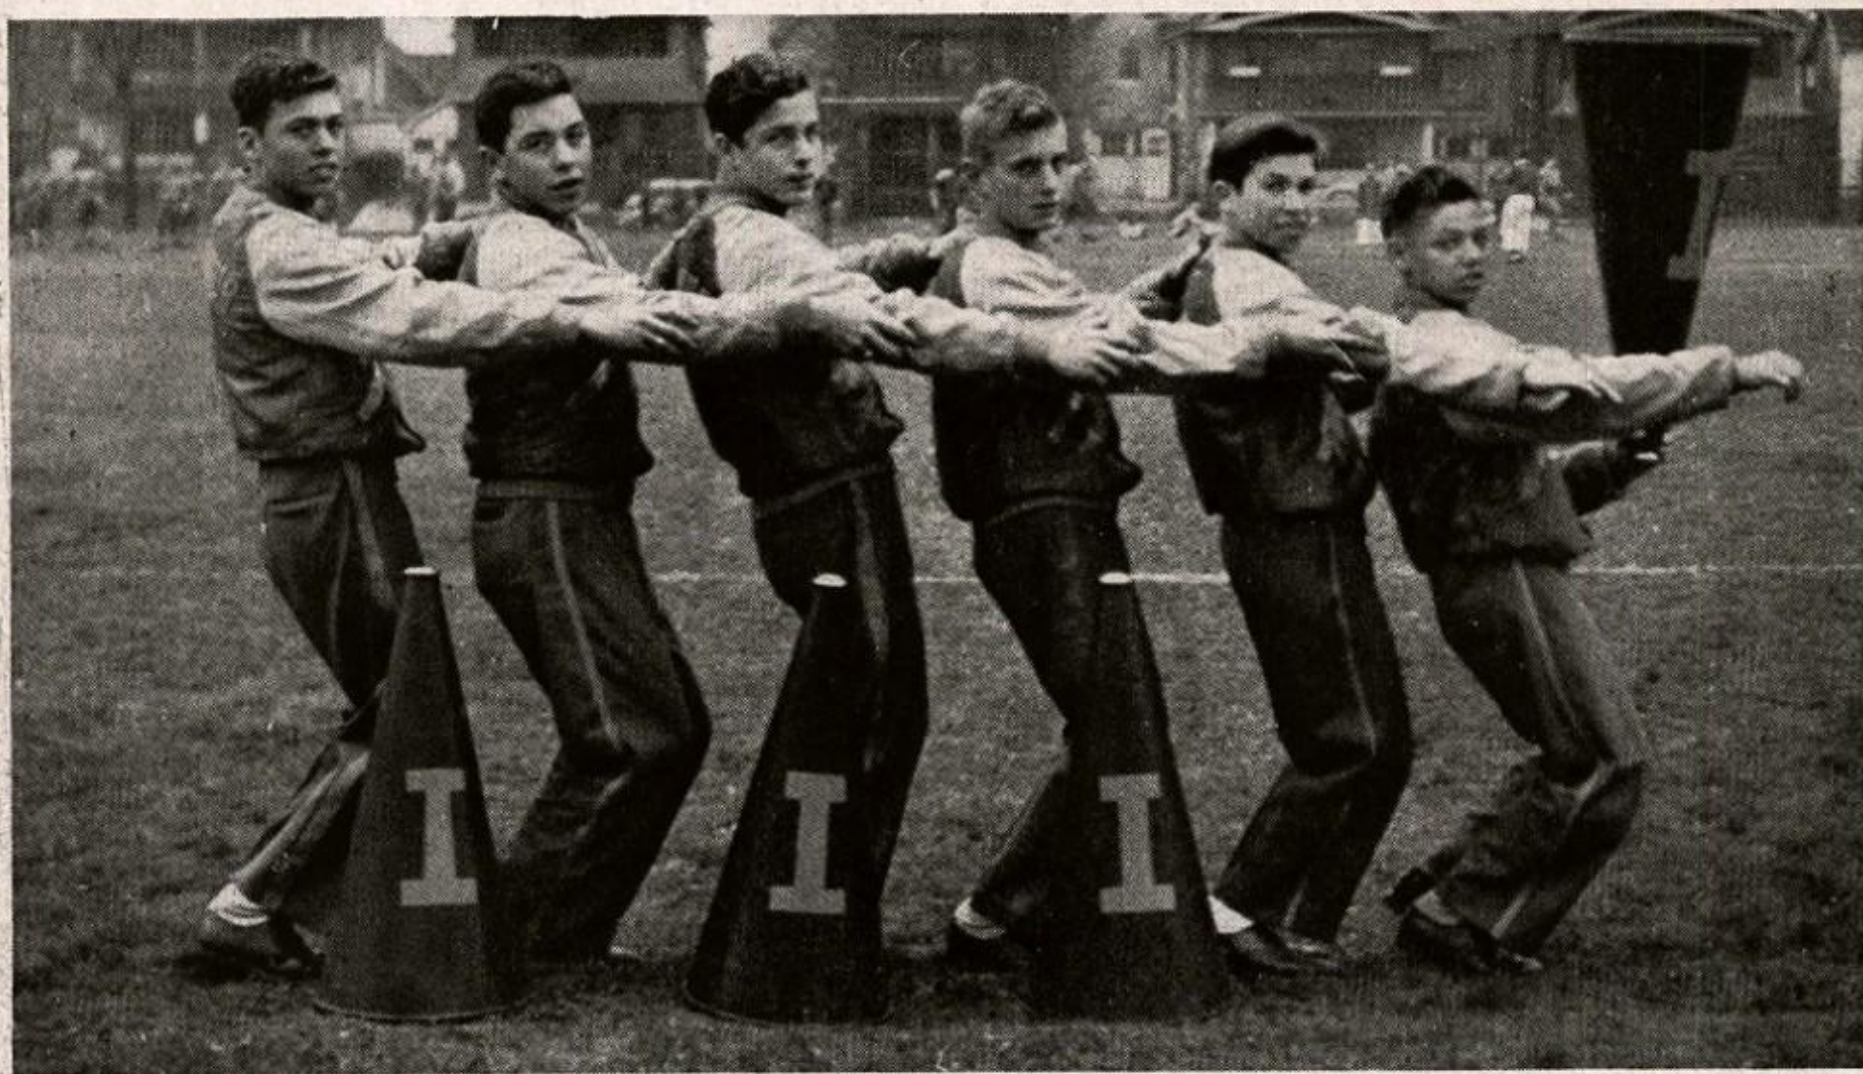

Polomsky and Waiwood slug it out in the semi-finals.

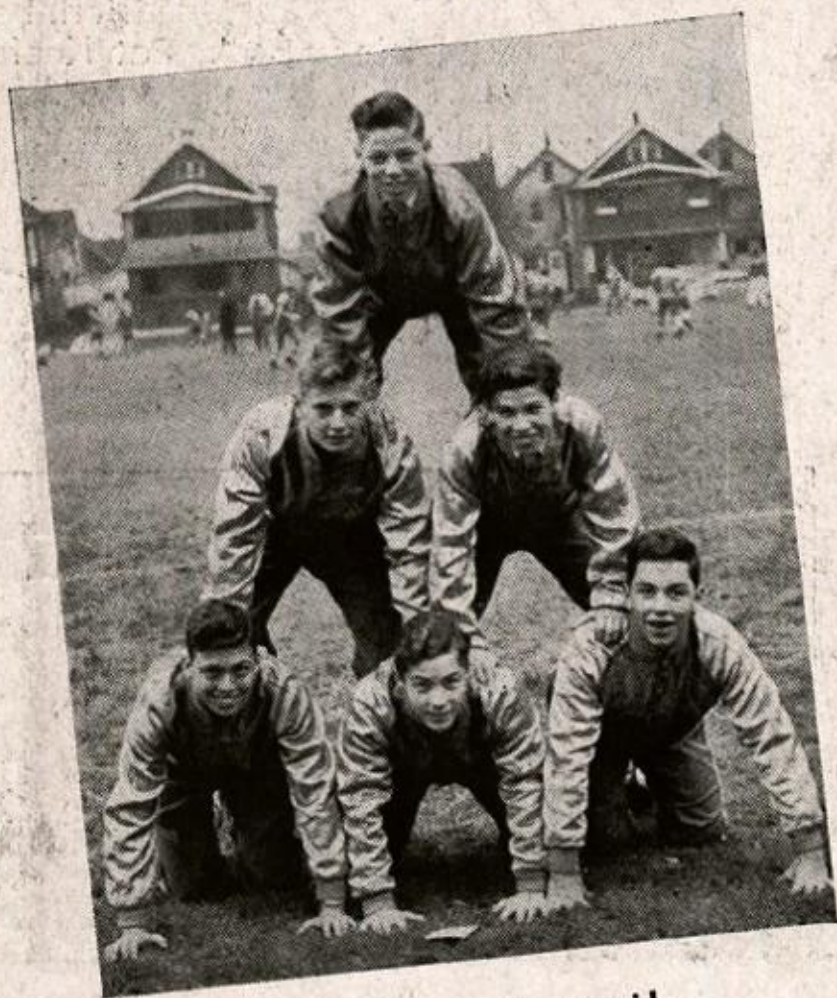

Livingston and Berry clinch in the finals, April 18.

Cheerleaders: J. Brigotti, F. Epple, M. Kilbane, A. Goebel, J. Bangert, J. Harnden.

Blue and Gold pyramid.

Whenever you attend an Ignatius football game, you will always observe several blue-and-gold clad figures who never actually get into the game. Although they wear no pads or cleated shoes, they are as much in the ball game as the elusive half-back or the rugged line-backer. For they are the cheerleaders, those devoted sons who give their loyal hearts and lusty voices for the good of the team.

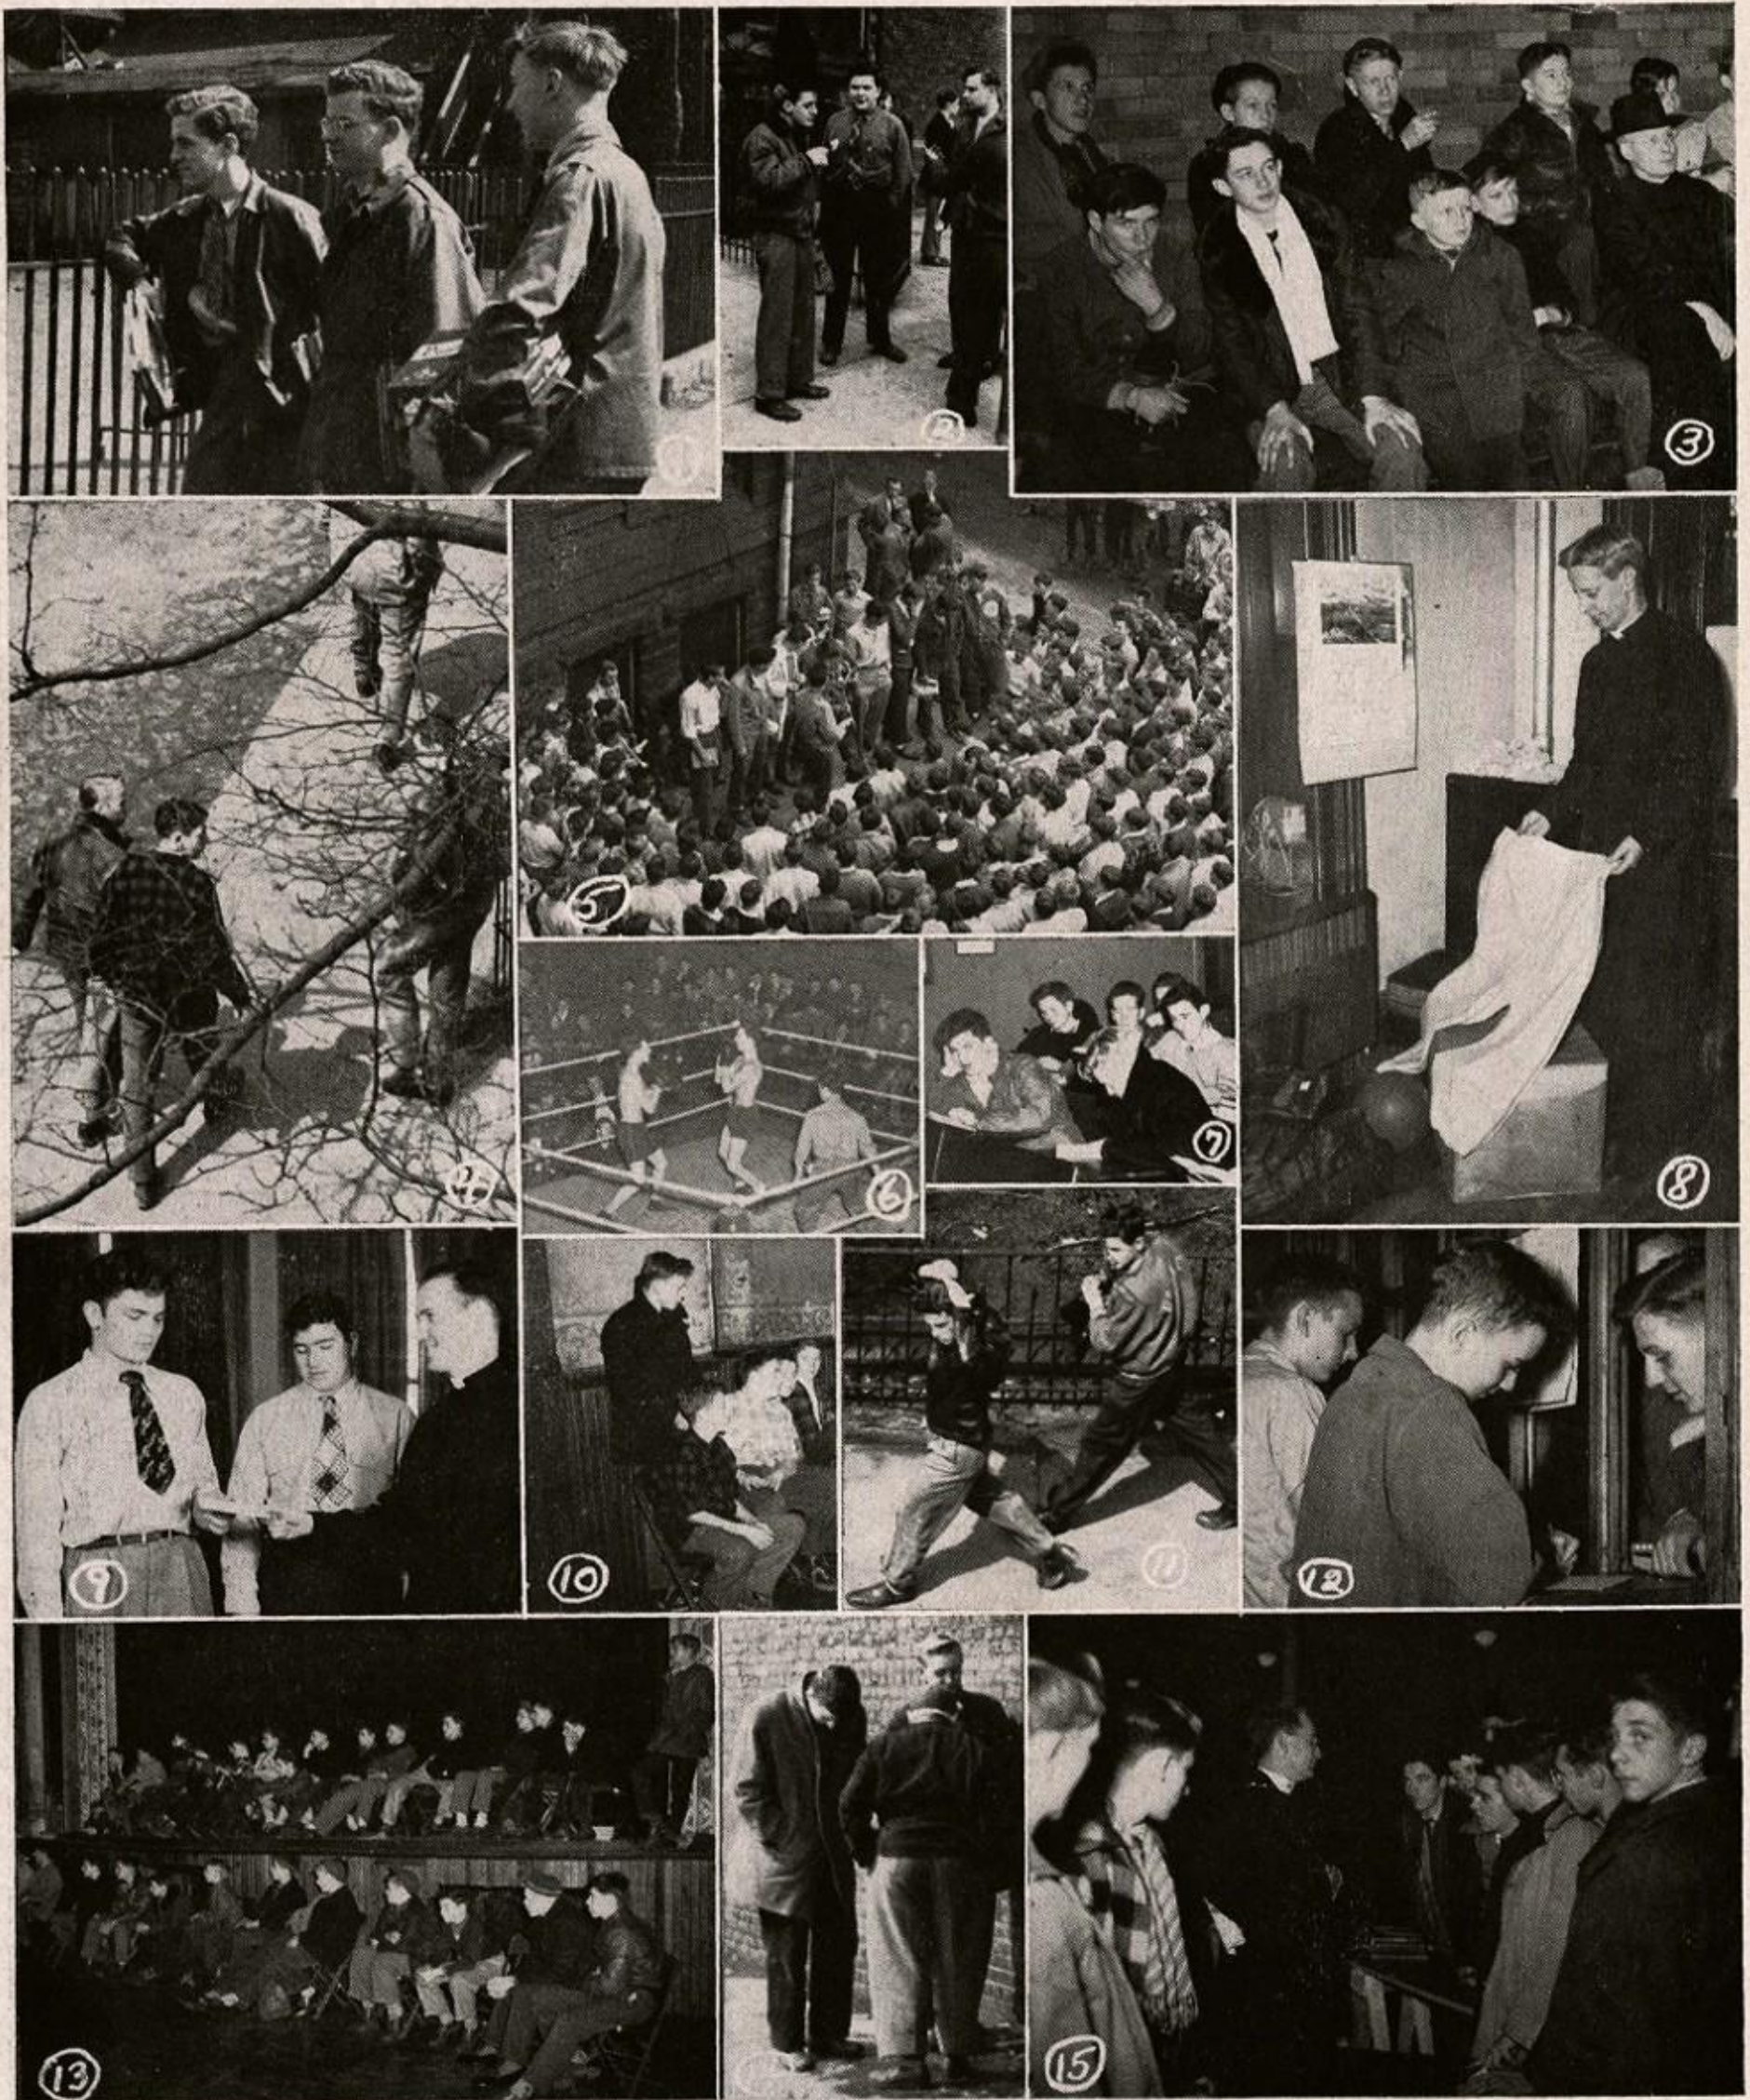

It is typical of their spirit that all through last year's dismal season, right down to the final game, they were always on hand. We pay just tribute to Joe Bangert, J. Brigotti, F. Epple, M. Kilbane, A. Goebel, and J. Harnden.

The Entire Cafeteria Staff

sincerely congratulates each member of the class of 1947. May your future be blessed with much success and prosperity.

We take this opportunity to thank the SENIOR MEMBERS of our staff for their untiring efforts and generous co-operation throughout their years of prompt, constant, and cheerful service.

DICK BLACKWELL and DAN McLAUGHLIN, our trusty money-changers, will indeed be difficult to replace. May they never be cheated in their life to come!

And who will be able to pour the "drinks" like MIKE CERVENAK and DON O'CONNOR? Mike's sales talk on the curative qualities of our hot potions paid heavy dividends while Don's drinking habit has finally made him grow fat.

The entire school will miss that most debonair man of our staff, JIM DANKO, seen so frequently with his head in an ice-cream freezer. Jimmy's double-deckers and tasty milkshakes have won him many friends and in some instances a little profit.

We shall long remember JIM SMITH, our quiet man, who really has not been keeping secrets on the recipes of our hamburgers. To Jim's co-worker and perfect complement, ART KSZYCZKOWSKI, who can now sell anything from pancakes to shoe-strings, we wish success in this mercenary world.

We forgive JOHN McHUGH, Ireland's answer to Jimmy Durante, for his many invasions into the poor box. His slogan: "A MEMORARE takes the place of an apple," helped him keep our floors spotless and shining.

Yes, to you our seniors we say "Thanks a lot" and may God bless you!

Signed:

The SONG TO REMEMBER ---

Our famed Alma Mater graces
Every shrine within our hearts,
With her unforgotten faces
And the faith that she imparts.

Years in passing cannot sever
Ties of new days from the old;
We're Ignatius men forever,
As we hail the Blue and Gold.

WE
4 - C
a
BRIGHT FUTURE

I am the only one left of our famous 4C class of '47. Ten years have now elapsed since that dreadful day before our graduation when every member of our class met his untimely death.

Bad habits of four years at school finally caught up with each one except me. SHEEHE, LADA, and GILL were trampled to death by KORB while he was hungrily rushing to lunch. Having been taken by the police, he missed his lunch and died of starvation.

CERVENAK, McHUGH and KSZYCZKOWSKI were shot as Russian spies as they sneaked out of physics' class at seventeen after twelve.

BOGUS and YOUNG were hurled five stories to their deaths by mad DANKO. The latter was shot while trying to steal money from the poor box.

CORRIGAN died in class while spelling. An overdose of dope was the cause. RILEY died from laughing at a joke told by O'CONNOR who did himself to death by bashing his little head against a wall in remorse.

SIDERAS while copying his homework at the bottom of an elevator shaft was crushed to death. LOFTUS was killed going over Niagara Falls in a big yellow pencil. He wanted to write the story of the big drop.

SONNHALTER was bitten by a poisonous snake found in CARRABINE'S lunch. CARRABINE was repaid for his practical joke by unknowingly eating one of his own sandwiches.

WILHELMS locked himself in his locker so he would not forget where it was. TEKNIPP was trampled to his doom in a volley ball game during gym class.

MAYER and PETERS fought a duel — both succumbed from severe wounds. FALLON choked to death over one of his twenty-five-syllable words.

SHERIDAN, KOCSAN and WEISBARTH were slapped to the pavement fighting over a Latin pony.

BRESNAHAN, HOGAN and LIVINGSTON, receiving their just reward, rotted away in room eleven after being found drinking from a water cooler on the second floor of the building.

Retelling these sad events makes me weep tears of pain for they were all such good boys.

The 3-A "Corn" Crib

COBS:

Fr. Murphy's pretty sleek,
He's the one who teaches Greek.
Fr. Brockman knows no wrath,
He keeps us on the narrow path.
Then comes Rev. Fr. O'Brien,
He's far from least there's no denyin'.
Here's three cheers for Mr. Cross,
He is 3-A's Latin "Boss."
As Shakespeare the Great would probably say,
"If it's English you want—see Mr. Miday."
P. S.—These verses are corny, we all know,
(but after all we paid OUR dough).
